Dear Mr. Goenka,

I, the undersigned, am writing you this letter on behalf of "Foundation for Cancer Patients", a non-profit organization which is working to provide healthcare facilities to cancer patients in Delhi. Every year our organization organizes a fundraising campaign with an intention to gather funds to help the cancer patients with their treatments.

We will be using these funds for their medication, surgery and wellness to give them a better life.

Thanking you in anticipation for giving us your time and considering our request for donating funds for cancer patients. If you have any queries about our foundation or the work that we do, please feel free to contact on the number or address shared in the letter.

The Politics of Breast Cancer Maureen Hogan Casamayou, 2001-03-26 Between 1990 and 1993 breast cancer activism became a significant political movement The issue began to receive extensive media attention and federal funding for breast cancer research jumped dramatically Describing the origins of this surge in interest Maureen Hogan Casamayou attributes it to the emergence of politically potent activism among breast cancer survivors and their supporters Exploring the creation and development of the National Breast Cancer Coalition NBCC she shows how many of its key leaders were mobilized by their own traumatic experiences with the disease and its treatments Casamayou details the NBCC's meteoric rise and impressive lobbying efforts explaining how in contrast to grassroots movements founded by dedicated individuals the coalition grew from the simultaneous efforts of a network of women who invested their time energy money and professional skills in the fight for increased funding for breast cancer research This multiple leadership or collective entrepreneurialism says Casamayou was crucial to the NBCC's success framing the issue in the minds of the public and policymakers alike
