

New Peer Review Ratings

The 2011 Revision of Generally Accepted Government Auditing Standards (GAGAS) modifies the reporting used to communicate the results of a peer review. In accordance with paragraph 3.101 of the 2011 GAGAS, the peer review report includes one of three possible ratings, based on the peer reviewers' opinion on the audit organization's system of quality control: Pass, Pass with Deficiencies, or Fail. The 2011 GAGAS does not change the thresholds for deficiency reporting. The table below compares peer review reporting under the 2007 GAGAS Revision to reporting under the 2011 Revision. Terms are defined on page 2.

Conditions Identified during Peer Review	Reporting under 2007 and Previous GAGAS	Reporting under 2011 GAGAS
The audit organization's system of quality control was suitably designed and complied with to provide the audit organization with reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable standards in all material respects.	Unmodified opinion.	Peer review rating of Pass.
The audit organization's system of quality control was suitably designed and complied with to provide reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable standards in all material respects, except for a deficiency or deficiencies.	Modified opinion. Report includes the reasons for the modification (the deficiency or deficiencies that resulted in a modified opinion) and a detailed description of the findings and recommendations.	Peer review rating of Pass with Deficiencies. The report includes a description of the identified deficiencies.
The audit organization's system of quality control did not provide the audit organization with reasonable assurance of performing or reporting in conformity with applicable standards in all material respects due to a significant deficiency or significant deficiencies in the design of or the audit organization's compliance with its system of quality control.	Adverse opinion. The report includes the reasons for the adverse opinion (the deficiency or deficiencies that resulted in an adverse opinion) and a detailed description of the findings and recommendations.
