Social Control of the Drinking Driver Michael D. Laurence, John R. Snortum, Franklin E.

Zimring, 1988-02-29 Social Control of the Drinking Driver lays the groundwork for a much-needed integration of methods, principles, and priorities. Law, criminology, biology, psychology, sociology, economics, public policy—the disciplines concerned with the problem of drinking and driving are many and varied, and research crosses national boundaries as well. Drawing on fourteen specialists and surveying the situations in nine countries, this book presents a comprehensive statement of current knowledge about drunken driving and its control. Back cover.

Renaissance in the Classroom Gail E. Burnaford, Arnold

April, Cynthia Weiss, 2013-09-05 This book invites readers to consider the possibilities for learning and growth when artists and arts educators come into a classroom and work with teachers to engage students in drama, dance, visual art, music and media arts. It is a nuts and bolts guide to arts integration across the curriculum in grades K-12, describing how students, teachers and artists get started with arts integration work through classroom curriculum involving the arts and go beyond the typical unit to engage in the arts throughout the school year. The framework is based on six years of arts integration in the Chicago Arts Partnerships in Education (CAPE) Renaissance in the Classroom, fully explaining the planning, implementation and assessment processes in arts integration. It frames arts integration in the larger context of curriculum integration, problem-based learning and the multiple intelligences, provides the theoretical frameworks that connect standards-based instruction to innovative teaching and learning, and embeds arts education in the larger issue of whole school improvement. It blends a description of the arts integration process with personal stories, anecdotes and impressions of those involved with a wealth of examples from diverse cultural backgrounds. It tells the stories of arts integration from the classroom to the school level and introduces the dynamics of arts partnerships in communities that connect arts organizations, schools and neighborhoods. It offers a variety of resources for engaging the arts either as an individual teacher or within a partnership and includes a color insert that illustrates the work teachers, students and artists have done in arts integration schools and an extensive appendix of tools, instruments, Web site contacts and curriculum ideas for immediate use. Of primary interest to K-12 classroom teachers, arts specialists and visiting artists who work with young people in schools or community arts organizations, this book is also highly relevant and useful for policymakers, arts partnerships, administrators and parents.
