

Diary Writing

Example - 217 words

Dear Diary...

I started my day by waking up to the sound of birds on the roof, sounds of annoying. I went back to sleep and woke up half an hour later. After checking happy to see the sun shining and the skies as blue as the sea. I rushed down and shouted to Mum to ask what I could have for breakfast. Unfortunately, she didn't answer so I reached in and helped myself to the box of flapjacks I had made myself days ago. I joined my sister on the sofa, our usual Saturday seats, and turned on the television.

Later on in the day, I played with my dogs in the garden. Lucy, the oldest and most energetic, always wants to play. She loves it when I throw a ball for her to chase after. I have to be careful though, as she actually gives the toys back for you to throw again. I also sat by the side of the garden, watching the birds. I have to admit, I'm not very good at this yet. I have to be patient and sit still for a long time. I think this may be my favourite part of the day.

Hepp examines a wide variety of sources including diaries and memoirs left by middle class women and men of the region. Following Philadelphians as they rode trains and trolleys read newspapers and shopped at department stores he uses their accounts as individualized guidebooks to middle class life in the metropolis. And through a creative use of photographs, floor plans, maps and material culture The Middle Class City helps to reconstruct the physical settings of these enterprises and recreate everyday middle class life shedding new light on an underanalyzed historical group and the cultural history of twentieth century America.
