

Experienced Teacher Interview about Her Job

3 pages | 732 words

I had the opportunity to interview, Mrs. Bernice Sapp about her life as a teacher. Mrs. Sapp has been teaching for forty years, and she stated that she loves her job, more and more, each day. She has her Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education from Paine College. She has taught in the Burke county school system, and she currently teaches at CSRA Head Start program. She is the head pre-k teacher. Mrs. Sapp motivation for teaching came from her having a big family. With being the oldest of twelve siblings, she was around children all day and decided to try teaching, to see if she would like it, and she did like, in fact she loved it.

Teaching became her life from then on. I asked her what surprised her about teaching. She identified that nothing surprised her, because of new trends each and every year, and life moves forward not backwards. She also expressed that was one of the best parts of teaching along with seeing young people grow and how they grow, and the things they learn in life. She faced many challenges as a teacher. She specified her biggest challenged was her first year as a teacher, because she was coming into the unknown. She stated that, she had to learn, through teaching, what early childhood development was.

Of course she no longer faces that challenge. Mrs. Sapp believes now that if it can be teach, she can teach it. Mrs. Sapp indicated that the most important function as a teacher would be to nurture and provide her children with all the previsions that it takes to learn. She also explained that when one takes care of the most important things in teaching that one will begin to see all the rewards that teaching brings. Her greatest rewards would be the enjoyment to see young people grow, and to see them succeed in their early years. Mrs.

Sapp strategies to maximize instructional time were to plan according to ages and stages of development. She always had all her materials together for various activities that she had for her students. She proclaimed that it only takes her about twenty minutes to prepared each day's lesson plan. She describe that for a new, inexperienced, teacher that it would take much longer. She stated that the teacher would have to get to know what type of students he or she might have, and what works or does not work for that particular class.

She explained that planning is skill that takes time to master and one may not master that skill in their first year of teaching, it may take many years to master the art of planning for a class. I asked Mrs. Sapp how and when she interacts with parents. She described that each parent is required to do three things in the Head Start program. Parents have to attend one parent-teacher conference, do volunteer hours, and consent to two home visits. During the parent-teacher conferences and the home visits is where she tells the parents about...

Demystifying Academic Writing in Higher Education: A Process View on Academic Textual Production Xinghua Liu,Rui Alexandre Alves,Angelique Aitken,Josef Schmied,2025-10-30 Academic writing in this Research Topic refers to the type of writing demonstrating students disciplinary knowledge of and proficiency in synthesizing analyzing and responding critically to new information Hyland 2004 Swales 1990 which may include those genres like course essays project reports research proposals lab notes journal articles conference paper theses and dissertations As the current workplaces have become increasingly specialized higher education worldwide has been increasingly charged with the task of developing students academic writing and correspondingly on students parts learning through writing has been necessary for them to succeed in higher education To prepare university students for writing challenges during the past decades numerous studies have been devoted to the study of linguistic and rhetorical resources in students academic writing under such umbrella terms like style reader awareness authorial voice writers identity stance evaluation textual structures steps and moves Charles Hunston Hinkel 2002 However previous research on academic writing has been predominantly focused on the linguistic and rhetorical aspects namely the final product of students writing while the nature and processes of composition students engagement and individual differences and the influence of contextual factors like emerging technology have been under explored Thus the goal of this Research Topic is to bring a process oriented and dynamic perspective to the study of textual production in academic contexts by both encouraging an expanded view of existing research paradigms and also welcoming novel approaches Data can be collected by using corpus building interviews and questionnaires but we would also welcome the use of experimental methods and a mixed method approach for data collection Meanwhile previous research mainly studied university students who were learning English as a second or foreign language hence we also welcome research examining first language writers and students who are learning a second or foreign language other than English We believe for the study of the complex phenomenon like academic writing no single method or tool can suffice Therefore we strongly recommend a more creative perspective in data collection and analyzing and interpreting academic writing Papers can present quantitative data analyses based on experimental design or qualitative data analyses stemmed from more ethnographic oriented research Systematic review studies are also welcome We encourage contributions related but not restricted to the following topics 1 Cognitive processes in academic texts planning composing and revisions and student writers individual differences 2 Metacognition and self regulation in academic texts planning composing and revisions and student writers individual differences 3 Motivation and self efficacy in academic texts planning composing and revisions and student writers individual differences 4 Linguistic and rhetorical choices identity construction and disciplinary knowledge construction 5 Student writers textual production peer feedback and interactions with discourse communities 6 Affordances and challenges of artificial intelligence AI in the process of academic textual production in higher education The Jossey-Bass Reader on Teaching ,2003-01-24 The fifth in the Jossey Bass Education Series Readers this anthology offers an accessible look at the challenges of becoming a teacher inspiring teaching techniques and the philosophies and passions that are the foundation of teaching Teachers' Ideas and Practices about Assessment and Instruction Hilda Borko,1993
