

Spring! PARTY

Dear Parents,

Spring is here, and we are excited to invite you to our annual spring party. It is an excellent opportunity for our students to celebrate the arrival of warmer weather and the blooming of flowers. We would like to invite all parents to join us in making this party a memorable event for our kids.

The party is scheduled for Dismissal time and it will be held in Dismissal Room. We have a variety of fun activities and games planned for the children, and we hope that everyone can attend and enjoy the celebration with us.

To keep us make the party a success, we are kindly asking for donations of supplies. If you are able to donate any of the following items, it would be greatly appreciated:

- Vegetables: Carrots, cucumbers, beets, etc.
- Fruits: Oranges, tomatoes, apples, pears, etc.
- Forks (24)
- Plates (24)
- Plastic eggs (one-half dozen)
- Cotton balls (4 bags)
- Balloons
- Gloves (5 pairs)

If you are interested in volunteering, please sign up using the Google Docs link provided below. We would appreciate your help in making this a memorable event for our students.

Thank you in advance for your support and we hope to see you at the party!

Best regards,
Mr. White

Family Networks and the Russian Revolutionary Movement, 1870-1940 Katy Turton,2017-12-04 This book explores the role played by families in the Russian revolutionary movement and the first decades of the Soviet regime While revolutionaries were expected to sever all family ties or at the very least put political concerns before personal ones in practice this was rarely achieved In the underground revolutionaries of all stripes from populists to social democrats relied on siblings spouses children and parents to help them conduct party tasks with the appearance of domesticity regularly thwarting police interference Family networks were also vital when the worst happened and revolutionaries were imprisoned or exiled After the revolution these family networks continued to function in the building of the new Soviet regime and amongst the socialist opponents who tried to resist the Bolsheviks As the Party persecuted its socialist enemies and eventually turned on threats perceived within its ranks it deliberately included the spouses and relatives of its opponents in an attempt to destroy family networks for good the most successful political parties in the western world Its success has been built on its large grass roots membership And yet that membership appears to be increasingly disaffected and in decline This book is the first in depth study of this crucial section of the Conservative Party Drawing on new and revealing survey data it paints a fascinating picture of the social make up and political views of a grass roots membership who dislike Jacques Delors more than the European Community and The Sun newspaper most of all the book challenges the stereotypical view of the Conservative activist as an eccentric and politically irrelevant Thatcher loving extremist Instead the authors argue that the grass roots membership are the unsung heroes of political life helping to keep the party system working and democracy intact at a time when it is under considerable strain The authors claim that to some extent the party is the author of its own problems and point out the likely dire consequences for its future success if the current decline continues They conclude by outlining the ways in which the leadership might revitalize its most important political asset
