Building School-Community Partnerships Mavis G. Sanders, 2015-03-17 This current era of high stakes testing accountability and shrinking educational budgets demands that schools seek bold and innovative ways to build strong learning environments for all students. Community involvement is a powerful tool in generating resources that are essential for educational excellence. Building School Community Partnerships Collaboration for Student Success emphasizes the importance of community involvement for effective school functioning, student support and well-being and community health and development. This sharp, insightful book serves as an excellent resource for educators seeking to establish school community partnerships to achieve goals for their schools and the students, families and communities they serve. Schools can collaborate with a wide variety of community partners to obtain the resources they need to achieve important goals for students learning. Some of these partners may include Businesses and corporations, Universities and other institutions of higher learning, National and local volunteer organizations, Social service agencies and health partners, Faith based organizations and institutions. Work successfully with community partners to improve school programs and curricula, strengthen families and expand your students learning experiences. How to Market Your School Johanna M.

Lockhart, 2005-08 Is your school or district facing increased competition, diminishing resources, changing demographics, media scrutiny and declining employee retention? How to Market Your School is a comprehensive guide that provides school administrators with the essential tools to create a positive public image, attract students, qualified personnel and volunteers and build community support through a strategic marketing effort. Author Johanna Lockhart draws on her extensive marketing and public relations experience to cover topics such as School marketing, What it is and why it matters, Developing a marketing strategy, Marketing research and database marketing, Marketing and electronic communication, Media relations, Building community partnerships, Public relations and much more. Although originally intended for public school administrators, How to Market Your School is equally valuable to private and charter schools. It will help principals, assistant principals, business managers and district administrators apply the knowledge and tools used successfully in the private sector to organize, implement and maintain an integrated marketing program to achieve their particular goals. Lockhart presents the fundamentals of integrated marketing in clear and concise terms and uses actual case studies to illustrate each aspect of successful school marketing. Home, School, and Community Collaboration Kathy B. Grant, Julie A.

Ray, 2018-02-27 Home School and Community Collaboration uses the culturally responsive family support model as a framework to prepare teachers to work effectively with children from diverse families. Authors Kathy B. Grant and Julie A. Ray skillfully incorporate numerous real life vignettes and case studies to show readers the practical application of culturally responsive family engagement. The Fourth Edition contains additional content that enhances the already relevant text, including a new section titled Perspectives on Poverty acknowledging the deep levels of poverty in the United States and the
