Stop Foreclosure Now Lloyd SEGAL, 2008-09-15 We've all heard the reports Americans are losing their homes in record numbers and the housing crisis seems unlikely to subside anytime soon. Foreclosures affect all kinds of people and all kinds of properties. Many people faced with foreclosure feel helpless and resigned to giving up their homes without even trying to save them. The good news is that with the right advice homeowners can take control of the situation, avoid foreclosure proceedings, and even protect their credit. Lloyd Segal, mortgage banker, attorney, and real estate investor, has spent the last twenty-five years helping homeowners save their houses. In Stop Foreclosure Now, he shows readers how to develop a plan to delay or stop foreclosure, understand the documents involved, negotiate with their lender, use the courts to stop foreclosure, and bankruptcy, arrange to refinance their property, sell their property quickly, use military status to stop foreclosure, understand foreclosure laws in all 50 states. Timely and indispensable, this guide will help anyone survive the housing crisis and preserve their most important investment.

Sir William Wilson Hunter, Bengal MS Records Ananda Bhattacharyya, 2025-10-27 W. W. Hunter's Bengal MS Records 1782-1807 in four volumes is based on the Collectorate records and the records of the Board of Revenue which were widely scattered. Hunter made an extensive survey of these records which are now available in a complete form in the record room of the Directorate of State Archives, West Bengal. The records relate to the judicial, civil, military, and land revenue administration of the East India Company. The introductory note of Hunter as found in the Bengal MS Records and the bulk of letters throw light on the revenue work that progressed territorially with the expansion of the Presidency. The importance of the Board of Revenue records was given considerable significance as these records were the raw data for reconstructing these volumes. Hunter's omnibus compilation had thrown light on various districts of Bengal Presidency: viz. Midnapore, Bishnupur, Cuttack, Rangpur, Dinajpur, Rajshahi, Mymensingh, Chittagong, Purneah, Bhagalpur, Shahabad, and Benares, and dealt with such matters as rent, suits, waste lands, lakhiraj lands, Government estates, and their settlements, customs, excise, salt, opium, indigo, police, post office, and public works, including sanitation, embankments, stamps, and survey. The consolidated index prepared by Hunter shows the exhaustive nature of his research and would prove to be a lodestone for scholars of colonialism in South Asia.
