Animals as Sentinels of Environmental Health Hazards National Research Council, Division on Earth and Life Studies, Commission on Life Sciences, Board on Environmental Studies and Toxicology, Committee on Animals as Monitors of Environmental Hazards, 1991-02-01 Studying animals in the environment may be a realistic and highly beneficial approach to identifying unknown chemical contaminants before they cause human harm. Animals as Sentinels of Environmental Health Hazards presents an overview of animal monitoring programs including detailed case studies of how animal health problems such as the effects of DDT on wild bird populations have led researchers to the sources of human health hazards. The authors examine the components and characteristics required for an effective animal monitoring program and they evaluate numerous existing programs including in situ research where an animal is placed in a natural setting for monitoring purposes.

Examination Notes in Psychiatry 4th Edition Peter Buckley, Del Prewette, Jonathan Byrd, Glynn Harrison, 2004-12-24 Over the last 20 years Examination Notes in Psychiatry has become one of the leading texts for trainee psychiatrists. The 4th edition maintains the core of valuable information that is required by any would be psychiatrist but has been completely revised and updated. Assessment and diagnosis form the foundation to each section but are now enhanced by the inclusion of treatment algorithms and evidence based medicine. Changes to the nomenclature have been made to reflect current practice. The fully revised reading lists lead the reader to the latest papers and publications and a glossary of relevant websites will provide even further resources whether during the revision process or for the professional requiring a rapid reference between consultations. The sheer volume of essential information provided in a structured focused format makes Examination Notes in Psychiatry 4e essential reading for trainees psychiatrists and mental health professionals alike.
