

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE FOR MBA

At seven years old, I knew that I wanted to start my own business. I had an idea for a great new invention that I dreamed up with my best friend, and together we set about making prototypes to sell to the neighbors. Many of them bought them just to humor us, and it was with great dismay that we figured out that what we invented had been around for at least a century. However, the excitement of creating something from scratch that could be called my very own has never left me. I am submitting this statement of purpose sample for MBA in the hopes of attaining a MBA degree that will allow me to fulfill my dream of becoming a small business owner.

During college, I completed an internship in business administration that gave me much insight into the responsibilities of management professionals. Throughout the internship, I was charged with not only overseeing the progress of several projects, but also to ensure workplace harmony. Perhaps one of the most important lessons I learned through this experience was to accurately gauge personnel and their teamwork abilities, assigning tasks based on each person's ability to complete them. I hope to take these invaluable lessons with me to my master's studies and my future career.

As an intern, I also learned that the MBA degree was an essential part of management professional's portfolio. Through this MBA program, I hope to receive the training that I will need to succeed in the future. This program will teach me new concepts and help to refine the knowledge that I already have. Through the built-in internships and collaborations offered through this MBA program, I know that I will be able to gain the real-world skills that I will need to stand on my own as a business professional that can successfully run her own business.
