Youth, Globalization, and Society in Africa and Its Diaspora Jepkorir-Rose Chepyator-Thomson, Akinloye Ojo, Karim Traore, Katja Sonkeng, 2020-02-11 This edited collection provides a window into Africa's diversity. A wide-ranging body of authors offers a valuable glimpse into the challenges and opportunities presented by globalization to the youth in Africa and its diaspora while issuing a stern call for action to local governments to act now and tap into the energy of Africa's burgeoning youth population. In doing so, the authors expand extant literature on the continent's coping with globalization in the context of young people in various African nations. Featured in the collection are views on education, language, agriculture, sport, and technology deeply interwoven into the schooling behavior and health of youth. Specifically, these practices are found in both formal and non-formal education, agricultural production and food nutrition, computer technology, and sport's amelioration of health issues throughout Africa. The Fundamentals of Management and Their Possible Changes Due to the Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic Juraj MIŠÚN, Martin NOVYSEDLÁK, Ivana MIŠÚNOVÁ HUDÁKOVÁ, 2023-09-14

Advances in Engineering Management, Innovation, and Sustainability James Olabode Bamidele Rotimi, Wajiha Mohsin Shahzad, Monty Sutrisna, Ravindu Kahandawa, 2024-07-09 This book contains a selection of papers from the 13th International Conference on Engineering Project and Production Management EPPM held in Auckland, New Zealand, from 29 November to 1 December 2023. The conference was organized by the School of Built Environment, Massey University, in collaboration with the EPPM Association. The book comprises of quality assured theoretical discussions, data analysis, case studies, and industry practices presented by global researchers and practitioners. The conference theme was 'Creating capacity and capability, re-energizing supply chain for sustainable management of projects and productions in engineering', and this volume focuses on papers related to engineering management, innovation, and sustainability. The papers are comprehensive, multidisciplinary, and advanced, and will be of interest to researchers and practitioners from various industries seeking the latest updates on the fields of engineering project and production management. American Book Publishing Record, 2006 Conservation of Biological Resources E. J. Milner-Gulland, Ruth Mace, 2009-07-15 This book presents the issues surrounding the conservation of wild species and ecosystems used by people. It is aimed at final year undergraduate and master's students taking courses in conservation, environmental management, ecological economics, and related subjects, as well as conservation professionals including managers, policy makers, and researchers. The structure of the book is ideal for a course in conservation, comprising a theoretical section written by the authors and a set of ten contributed case studies intentionally diverse in discipline, geographical region, and system of study. The theoretical section provides the knowledge that is needed to understand the issues, while the case studies can form the basis of seminars. Readers will emerge with a clear recognition of the difficulties of limiting the harvesting of biological resources to sustainable levels and of the boundaries of sustainable use as a conservation tool. The authors, an ecologist and an anthropologist, have both worked on the conservation and sustainable use of wildlife for several years including the ivory and rhino horn trades. The first book to examine the issues underlying the sustainable use debate in a fully interdisciplinary manner. Both the theoretical section and the case studies approach the issues using methods from economics, ecology, anthropology and other fields. Designed as a course textbook combining a theoretical section with invited case studies written by expert practitioners in the field. Outlines the new direction that conservation biology and thus conservation biologists must take if it is to be successful.

Safety and Health Competence Ulrike Bollmann, George Boustras, 2020-06-11. Global and technological transformation is changing work and learning. A broader understanding of prevention and cultural change associated with it is putting new demands on companies and their employees. People and organizations need suitable competences to deal with this transformation. They need to be empowered to shape decent living and working conditions. Safety and Health Competence: A Guide for Cultures of Prevention is written in the context of work and health. The use of a social constructive and a context sensitive approach to competence in occupational safety and health is new and forms a theoretical basis for putting into place the necessary learning processes for cultural transformation in companies and educational institutions. Covers a broad range of new demands placed on companies and employees in this age of global and technological transformation. Provides assistance with a better understanding of the current debate on occupational safety and health. OSH competences. Presents a comprehensive source of information for OSH experts, human resource specialists, educational institutions, training development specialists, teachers and trainers, allowing them to identify competence needs, promote competence development and assess competences. Explains what the concept culture of prevention means. Offers real life examples that will appeal to practitioners.
