Reading Bestsellers Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2023-04-27

Readers are essential agents in the production of bestsellers but bestsellers are not essential to readers' leisure pursuits. The starting point in this Element is readers' opinions about and their uses of bestselling fiction in English. Readers' relationships with bestsellers bring into view their practices of book selection and their navigation of book recommendation culture. Based on three years of original research (2019-2021) including a quantitative survey with readers, interviews with social media influencers and qualitative work with international Gen Z readers in a private Instagram chat space, the authors highlight three core actions contemporary multimodal readers make: choosing, connecting and responding in a transmedia era where on- and offline media practices co-exist. The contemporary multimodal reader, or the MMR3, they argue, illustrates the pervasiveness of recommendation culture, reliance on trusted others and an ethic of responsiveness.

He grew into a villain, the taste of vengeance on his tongue. Craving to make his enemies pay for the misdeeds they had done. Instead, he found a Darling girl and refused to let her go. For what better way to make the man pay than to steal his little shadow?
