Take My Hand Again Brummett, Nancy Parker, 2015-04-27 The guide the author wishes she had when she took on a caretaker role By 2020 the senior population in this country will number over 115 million Despite this persistent graying of America few adult children feel prepared to take on the role of caregiver for aging parents Those who discover they must now intervene and care for an elder they love are often at a loss Trying to navigate the transition is like being dropped in a foreign country with no map no GPS and no translator and acting as tour guide Nancy Parker Brummett knows what they're going through and has the means to help

She shares her own experience of caring for a mother and mother in law in assisted living as well as lessons learned through study of the academic social and political issues involved Each chapter begins with relevant Scripture but the useful information here is not limited to people of faith Take My Hand Again offers readers the warm feeling of having someone they trust stepping up to hold their hand and share encouragement and hope Children of the aging don't need a degree in gerontology they just need for someone to ask the pertinent questions and give them an overview of the pros and cons of common options so they can make informed decisions Whether they've already had their wake up call or just want to be prepared for what's to come Brummett's sometimes humorous sometimes poignant book has just what they're looking for

My Pain Woke Me up - Legal Injustice Jean Criss, 2012-12-14 I know I am not the first woman who has encountered defeat belligerence defiance baffling opposition unfounded court decisions and rulings in the legal justice system And I am sure I'm not the first woman to question whether there is an internal brotherhood sisterhood among counsel resulting in what I believe is unfair decisions despite facts or findings Legal Injustice shares the author's experiences dealing with attorneys in the local court system ultimately leading her to the question Does justice truly prevail Jean Criss has more than 25 years of experience in the digital media industry and is now living her own dreams as an entrepreneur Criss is the single mother of two teenagers and resides in northern New Jersey She designed and self published Legal Injustice drawing upon her full media experience

Making Healthy Choices for Senior Living Kenneth D. Barringer PhD, 2015-01-23 Successful senior living doesn't just happen by itself Retirement needs a plan and key information to make these rich years happy and healthy ones This book is intended to help retirees prepare for the aging process and to plan to make good decisions about each of the challenges to age well Our senior life can be the golden years but healthy living comes when we make responsible life choices This book is intended to be a guide to make that happen in your life It is filled with positive suggestions and clues to help you decide to live a wellness lifestyle in your retirement years This book is built on the concept that we all need to be better decision makers about the quality of our life as we age It is based on the assumption as well that we do make self destructive choices which can harm our health i.e. obesity The message of the book is focused on our need to establish a pattern of making responsible life choices The content of this resource is full of positive suggestions to accomplish that goal It is a helpful guide for a successful retirement but it needs to be read by all adults regardless of age so they are better prepared for living a healthy lifestyle in their golden years The author also suggests that all of us could benefit enormously if we could gather in community throughout our country to discuss how we can make better choices on these important decisions for our future

My Story, My Song Missy Buchanan, Lucimarian Roberts, 2019-08-01 My Story My Song is the heartwarming memoir of the late 88 year old Lucimarian Tolliver Roberts mother of Good Morning America coanchor Robin Roberts It details pivotal moments in Mrs Roberts life revealing how faith in God gave her strength and hope to face the challenges of life Good Morning America viewers came to know and love Lucimarian Tolliver Roberts For many the heartfelt connection began the day after Hurricane Katrina blew through the Gulf Coast They eagerly watched as Robin stood among the remnants of her hometown and talked about her desperate search for her elderly mother who had ridden out the storm in her Mississippi home Once she knew that her mother was safe Robin admitted she was not surprised to learn that even as the winds howled and floodwaters rose Lucimarian Roberts sang hymns As she was working on her memoir Lucimarian still was able to recite the lyrics to hundreds of hymns and spirituals first learned in her childhood church She credited hymns for helping her a black woman born in 1924 live faithfully through the turbulent times of the Great Depression segregation the civil rights struggle and the loneliness and constant moves that came with being married to a U S Air Force officer Robin writes Folks are drawn to Mom s humility wisdom and spirituality Countless times I ve been told Your mother should write a book Reflections from Robin on her mother s life and faith cap each chapter Now you will be able to gain insights from Lucimarian Roberts amazing life God has brought the most wonderful and sometimes the most unlikely people of all ages and races into my life to encourage and guide me on this spiritual journey of life Mrs Roberts said with bright eyes Highlights of My Story My Song include Inspiring stories of how a mother s love and character affect generations to come A tribute to the power of hymns and music to lift the heart out of loneliness and grief Honest childhood stories of poverty and alcoholism and the strength to overcome Insight into life as an African American during segregation and beyond Examples of the powerful influence of mentors and role models Encouraging stories of aging with grace Reminders of the impact of integrity character and love You will be inspired and uplifted by this memoir of a woman who faced the best and worst of times with faith dignity and grace
