Northern Lights B. J. Epstein, 2009 This volume is a collection of essays based on papers given at the Nordic Translation Conference which took place in London in March 2008. The purpose of the collection is twofold. First it serves to place the Nordic languages firmly into the field of translation studies where hitherto little research has focused on the Nordic region. The essays include many Nordic specific studies and ideas. Second the book presents research and conclusions which are relevant to translation studies in all languages and cultures. Therefore this volume which covers a wide range of Nordic languages and both literary and non literary topics is unambiguously pertinent to the Nordic countries while also being universally valuable.

Though claiming to be a salesman it soon becomes apparent that Josef has no purpose in the town and that a newcomer can expect nothing but distrust from the townspeople. Maribor is full of tensions that are played out in pub brawls and in the rivalry between the Slovenes and Germans at the top of the social hierarchy. Against this backdrop of ethnic hatred and personal descent Josef witnesses the fiery shimmer of the aurora borealis and imagines the town has been set aflame an omen of the coming of war.
