Lake,Mark Dyreson,2021-03-30 New Dimensions of Sport in Modern Europe offers new perspectives on European sport history in the long twentieth century designed to challenge and deconstruct what might be considered traditional or more familiar Euro centric conceptions and geographies of sport and leisure especially those deriving from the leading hotbeds of European sport history This anthology adds to the growing corpus of explorations of sport and leisure in late modern European history from a variety of countries France Spain Finland Hungary Bulgaria and Slovenia With topics covering several different sports and ranging from sport during empire to mega events and sport literature to women s sport attire the insights provided by this new body of research demonstrate a greater understanding of the connections between sport and society in Europe throughout the long twentieth century This book was originally published as a special issue of The International Journal of the History of Sport      The Jewish Homemaker ,1997      Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity Peta

Mitchell,2008 The last fifty years have witnessed the growing pervasiveness of the figure of the map in critical theoretical and fictional discourse References to mapping and cartography are endemic in poststructuralist theory and similarly geographically and culturally diverse authors of twentieth century fiction seem fixated upon mapping While the map metaphor has been employed for centuries to highlight issues of textual representation and epistemology the map metaphor itself has undergone a transformation in the postmodern era This metamorphosis draws together poststructuralist conceptualizations of epistemology textuality cartography and metaphor and signals a shift away from modernist preoccupations with temporality and objectivity to a postmodern pragmatics of spatiality and subjectivity Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity charts this metamorphosis of cartographic metaphor and argues that the ongoing reworking of the map metaphor renders it a formative and performative metaphor of postmodernity     Catalogue Bureau of Indian Standards,2008     The N.S.W.
