Pigza,Julie E. Owen,0 Associates,2023-07-03 As leadership educators shift from teacher to learner centered environments from hierarchical to shared responsibility for learning and from absolute to constructed ways of knowing a desire for new inclusive and creative pedagogies is also emerging This text includes over 40 easy to follow modules related to women and leadership development crafted by experienced leadership educators and practitioners Each module includes learning objectives detailed instructions and ideas for adapting the module to diverse learning spaces and audiences Here are but a few of the critical questions that are addressed in the modules How do we make explicit the complexities of power in leadership and in the stories we tell ourselves about feminism and gender in leadership How can we interrogate and deconstruct dominant narratives and invite intersectionality Whose voices are missing or silenced in content and process What practices build leadership efficacy and habits of critical self reflection What are the effects of stereotypes prejudice and discrimination in leadership How are learning and leadership both individual and collective processes How do we develop critical consciousness and maintain hope in the face of the long arc of structural change This text is a detailed resource for anyone interested in women and leadership education whether through a full length course a weekend workshop or a one time topical session It also serves as a companion to the book We are the Leaders We've Been Waiting For Women and Leadership Development in College Owen 2020

Constructing the Adolescent Reader in Contemporary Young Adult Fiction Elisabeth Rose Gruner, 2019-05-17 This book examines the way young adult readers are constructed in a variety of contemporary young adult fictions arguing that contemporary young adult novels depict readers as agents Reading these novels suggest is neither an unalloyed good nor a dangerous ploy but rather an essential occasionally fraught by turns escapist and instrumental deeply pleasurable and highly contentious activity that has value far beyond the classroom skills or the specific content it conveys After an introductory chapter that examines the state of reading and young adult fiction today the book examines novels that depict reading in school gendered and racialized reading reading magical and religious books and reading as a means to developing civic agency These examinations reveal that books for teens depict teen readers as doers and suggest that their ability to read deeply critically and communally is crucial to the development of adolescent agency

Vigilante Feminists and Agents of Destiny Laura Mattoon D'Amore, 2021-04-07 This interdisciplinary study examines the relationship between violence empowerment and the teenage super heroine in comics and young adult fantasy novels The author analyzes stories of teenage super heroines who have experienced trauma abduction assault and sexual violence that has led to a loss of agency and then tracks the way that their use of violence empowers them to reclaim agency over their lives and bodies The author identifies these characters as vigilante feminist teenage super heroines because they become vigilantes in order to protect other girls and young women from violence and create safer communities The teenage super heroines examined in this book are characters who have the ability through super power or supernatural and magical ability to fight back against those who seek to cause them harm They are a product of and a response to both the pervasive culture of violence against girls and women and a system that fails to protect girls and women from harm While this book is part of a robust intellectual conversation about the role of girls and women in popular literature and culture and about feminist analyses of comics and YA literature it is unique in its reading of violence as empowerment and in its careful tracing and naming of the teenage vigilante super heroine a characterization that is hugely popular and deserves this close reading
