Sandf Application For 2016:

South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Antonio Garcia, 2018-08-17 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade FIB as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo MONUSCO tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions What was more significant was that sub Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB South Africa Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIBs objectives This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations In this undertaking a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations Furthermore there are sections on operational constructs capstone and operating concepts doctrine and structural elements as well a section on mine action This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges Annual Report South Africa. Department of Defence, 2016 Silencing the Guns in Africa Antonio Garcia, Jacob Udo-Udo Jacob, 2025-03-14 The scholarship of this book is drawn from local and international experts by framing critically a number of discourses on matters of security conflict violence and peace on the African continent It is indeed a breath of fresh air to the scientific community largely because it contributes to the on going debates on security issues Dr Ntsikelelo Benjamin Breakfast Director of the Center for Security Peace and Conflict Resolution at Nelson Mandela University This book makes a deep contribution to scholarly literature on conflict studies peacekeeping and peacebuilding in Africa Written largely from the perspective of the applied social sciences it is empirically rich and offers refreshing insights into social behaviour in military contexts This is a timely contribution because current public discourse in South Africa is centred on the gains and missed opportunities of thirty years of democracy and new lenses are welcome Many of the chapters reflect South African experiences This is to be welcomed as it demonstrates that scholars and practitioners from the country are reflecting on the complexities of South African experiences of defence and security matters in contemporary times Dr Sandy Africa Director of Research at Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA This volume brings together the voices of scholars and practitioners a diverse group of writers who are passionate about and committed to creating a safer more prosperous and peaceful Africa Each with their own specialism this work combines many different world views and approaches Conflict in Africa is an impossibly broad topic to cover in a single edited publication and so we focus on a select number of case studies expositions and themes The Routledge International Handbook of

Military Psychology and Mental Health Updesh Kumar,2019-12-11 Military psychology has become one of the world's fastest growing disciplines with ever emerging new applications of research and development The Routledge International Handbook of Military Psychology and Mental Health is a compendium of chapters by internationally renowned scholars in the field bringing forth the state of the art in the theory practice and future prospects of military psychology This uniquely interdisciplinary volume deliberates upon the current issues and applications of military psychology not only within the military organization and the discipline of psychology but also in the larger context of its role of building a better world Split into three parts dedicated to specific themes the first part of the book Military Psychology The Roots and the Journey provides an overview of the evolution of the discipline over the years delving into concepts as varied as culture and cognition in the military a perspective on the role of military psychology in future warfare and ethical issues The second part Soldiering Deployment and Beyond considers the complexities involved in soldiering in view of the changing nature of warfare generating a focal discourse on various aspects of military leadership soldier resilience and post traumatic growth in the face of extreme situations bravery and character strengths and transitioning to civilian life In the final section Making a Choice Mental Health Issues and Prospects in the Military the contributors focus on the challenges and practices involved in maintaining the mental health of the soldier covering issues ranging from stress mental health and well being through to suicide risk and its prevention intervention and management strategies moral injury and post traumatic stress disorder Incorporating enlightening contributions of eminent scholars from around the world the volume is a comprehensive repository of current perspectives and future directions in the domain of military psychology It will prove a valuable resource for mental health practitioners military leaders policy makers and academics and students across a range of disciplines
