Relationships Nothing But The Truth:

Relationships Tracy McNeil,2014 Love in the Midst of Lie and Truth Jean Richard Franck,2016-09-09 In his new book on truth and lies in relationships Jean Richard Franck MA shows readers how small lies can lead to big consequences Franck s realism sets his work apart from other relationship books He acknowledges that in a perfect world no one would lie about anything He also acknowledges that we don t live in a perfect world and people are going to lie Instead of condemning anyone for doing so he teaches readers how to separate the harmless lies from the toxic ones He helps readers identify whether their partner lies and whether lies should be a deal breaker in a relationship Love in the Midst of Lie and Truth will teach readers how to better emotionally read situations and relationships It is only with a thorough understanding of the psychology behind social situations that they can navigate through them without hurting feelings or ruffling feathers Franck ends the book with two hypothetical situations a painful love and a painless love He shows the emotional complexity of relationships and how to recognize if you and your partner are painful or painless in your affection and respect for each other
