Psycho Education Group Ideas:

Group Activities for Families in Recovery Joan Zimmerman, Jon L. Winek, 2012-12-11 Group Activities for Families in Recovery offers therapists a wealth of activities designed to help families struggling with addiction address problem areas of functioning and ultimately shift from dysfunctional patterns to healthy living. Written by expert practitioners in family oriented substance abuse treatment, this text focuses on group therapy as a key component to treatment. The activities are varied and include topics presented through expressive arts, drawing, writing, acting, game playing, problem solving, enactments, worksheets, and roleplaying. The activities can be used individually, incorporated into another program, or stand alone as a 16 week or longer program. They can also be adapted for use in groups where children are present or for adult family groups.

Psychoeducational Groups Nina W. Brown, 2004 The second edition of Nina's Brown's Psychoeducational Groups provides an overview of the major learning and instructional theories together with specific guidelines for conducting a variety of psychoeducational groups. Presented are principles of group instruction, specific guidelines for creating groups and understanding phases of group development, and a guide for planning and leading experimental activities. This new edition includes two new chapters covering aspects of group planning and providing examples of preparing themed sessions with special population groups such as children, adolescents, and adults.
