Imagine a giant box is delivered to your front doorstep with your name on it. What's inside and what happens when you open it?

Write a short story about what it might be like if you woke up one morning with a mermaid tail.

Write about what would it be like if you had an alligator as a pet.

If you were in charge of the whole world, what would you do to make the world a happier place?

Imagine that dogs take over the world. What do they make the humans do?

Write about 3 places you would like to travel someday. What do these three places have in common?

Write a poem that starts with the word "if".

How do you feel when someone takes something of yours without asking? What is a good way to deal with it when that happens?

Imagine you walk out your front door one morning and it is raining popcorn! What do you do?

Insights Creative Writing Prompts Kids:

Killing Ideas Softly? the Promise and Perils of Creativity in the Classroom Ronald A. Beghetto, 2013-06-26 This book offers practical suggestions for teachers to incorporate creativity into their curriculum without radical changes. It provides insights and examples to help teachers make slight adjustments that support students' creative potential and enhance learning, blending theory with vivid classroom examples.

The Routledge International Handbook of Child and Adolescent Grief in Contemporary Contexts Carrie Traher, Lauren J. Breen, 2023-11-29 This volume presents the leading research in child and adolescent grief from a diverse and global perspective, focusing on the systemic political and cultural processes that have a direct bearing on the way youth experience loss and grief. Carrie Traher and Lauren J. Breen bring together a global community of academics, practitioners, and social activists to discuss and address the complexity of lived experiences of grief for young people today. Presented in four parts, the contributors begin by providing a theoretical overview of youth grief and bereavement, before moving onto other important topics such as suicide, bereavement, the trauma of war, digital grief, narratives, child soldiering, and more. Within each chapter, authors address contemporary theoretical frameworks, research findings, and praxis related to both death and non-death losses, such as the Black Lives Matter movement, environmental grief, and grief on the internet and social media. Including contributors from a range of countries and from various disciplines such as educators, health care professionals, policy makers, and advocates, the themes of coping, resilience, and growth are central and interwoven in each chapter. This handbook is essential for researchers, clinicians, scholars, educators, parents, and activists as to the most pressing societal and global issues that affect youth grief today and to provide context to their personal and professional interactions with youth. Chapter 9 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International license.

The Practice of Creative Writing Heather Sellers, 2016-08-19 When it comes to writing, The Practice of Creative Writing has a simple message: you can do this, and it's worthwhile to try. Designed for all students in the introductory course, The Practice of Creative Writing teaches students how to harness their imaginations to focus and create stories. Heather Sellers, who writes in multiple genres herself, has developed an approach that focuses on the elements and strategies that produce good writing in any genre: Images, Energy, Tension, Pattern, Insight, and Revision. She provides opportunities to be playful and to experiment at the same time that she teaches students the importance of discipline and craft. In addition to writing strategies and process, The Practice of Creative Writing teaches students how to read like writers, featuring ample and diverse readings in every genre. As a result, students come away with more sophisticated reading skills and exposure to a wide range of innovative and new literature. This new edition features a wealth of new readings as well as coverage of revisions, short forms, and new genres such as lists and monologues.
