A Different Kind of Power

Jacinda Ardern, 2025-06-03 What if we could redefine leadership What if kindness came first Jacinda Ardern grew up the daughter of a police officer in small town New Zealand but as the 40th Prime Minister of her country she commanded global respect for her empathetic leadership that put people first This is the remarkable story of how a Mormon girl plagued by self doubt made political history and changed our assumptions of what a global leader can be When Jacinda Ardern became Prime Minister at age thirty seven the world took notice But it was her compassionate yet powerful response to the 2019 Christchurch mosque attacks resulting in swift and sweeping gun control laws that demonstrated her remarkable leadership She guided her country through unprecedented challenges a volcanic eruption a major biosecurity incursion and a global pandemic while advancing visionary new policies to address climate change reduce child poverty and secure historic international trade deals She did all this while juggling first time motherhood in the public eye Ardern exemplifies a new kind of leadership proving that leaders can be caring empathetic and effective She has become a global icon and now she is ready to share her story from the struggles to the surprises including for the first time the full details of her decision to step down during her sixth year as Prime Minister Through her personal experiences and reflections Jacinda is a model for anyone who has ever doubted themselves or has aspired to lead with compassion conviction and courage A Different Kind of Power is more than a political memoir it's an insight into how it feels to lead ultimately asking What if you too are capable of more than you ever imagined
