Discover a more mindful, attentive, and adaptive parenting style that instills a lifelong habit of resilience and confidence in your child. Being a parent isn't easy. From the ear-splitting temper tantrums of the terrible twos to the heart-stopping antics of elder siblings who should know better, sometimes the family home can feel more like a psychological battleground with a masterful manipulator of your emotions. One thing is for sure: a child's life is one of exploration, discovery, and wonder. But between those wondrous moments, even the most cautious of children will suffer the consequences of their youthful trial and error. As a parent, it's hard to say no to an eager little face that you love, and it only gets harder when resisting your natural, hard-wired impulse to rush in and save them from their terrible decisions. Does this make you a bad parent? Of course not; you are like your children, a human trying to make sense of the world, and you alone have the power and responsibility to show them the best path forward.
