Ingram, 2005 This innovative, contemporary, and relevant text focuses on the use of accounting information for decision making and places students into situations where management decisions need to be made. Students learn both when and why accounting information is key to communicating important information within an organization so that as managers, they can make informed choices. The first half of the text demonstrates how organizations use accounting information to make financing, investing, and operating decisions. The second half emphasizes managerial accounting as a key communication process for management decision making. A Book for the Cook, 1899 The object of the compilers of A Book for the Cook has been to collect valuable old-fashioned receipts inherited by them from the original settlers of the New England states. Many of these formulas have been jealously guarded and secretly preserved in private families who were famous for them, and they have been obtained only through the courtesy of individuals now to be given to the public for the first time. Preface Cassell's household guide Cassell, Ltd, 1873 The Settlement Cook Book, 1921 Written in 1903 as a fundraiser for the Settlement House in Milwaukee, which worked to acculturate the largely German Jewish immigrant population in Milwaukee.
