Dialogic Pedagogy Anne Thwaite, Alyson Simpson, Pauline Jones, 2023-05-18 Taking a dialogic approach this edited book engages in analysis and description of dialogic discourse in a number of different educational contexts from early childhood to tertiary with an international team of contributors from Australia Finland New Zealand and the United Kingdom The chapters focus mostly on dialogic face to face discourse with some examples of online interactions and feature insights from educational linguistics particularly the work of Michael Halliday While the contributors come from a range of theoretical backgrounds they all share an interest in language in use and engage in close analysis of transcripts of naturally occurring interaction Taking inspiration from Alexander and other theorists they employ a fine grained and analytic approach to the exploration of their data The authors make use of the linguistic tools and models of language in society in order to examine the turn by turn unfolding of the interaction The authors relate their insights from disparate forms of linguistic analysis to elements of Alexander's 2020 dialogic framework situating the discourse in its contexts and discussing the pedagogical implications of the linguistic choices at play In presenting this work from a range of situations and perspectives the authors strive to demonstrate how dialogic discourse plays out in educational contexts across the world The book aims to foster further research in this direction and to inspire educators to explore dialogic discourse for themselves It will be of interest to a wide audience including literacy researchers linguists teachers and teacher educators as well as graduate students

Planning and Administering Early Childhood Programs Celia Anita Decker, John R. Decker, 1988 This structured book offers a solid overview of the types of early childhood programs available today and explores all aspects of their administration Rooted in the philosophy that thoughtful planning and administration are essential to the success of early childhood programs it examines how specific program bases affect decisions in all areas of program planning It is designed to equip readers with the necessary strategies tactics and resources to make better judgements in administering early childhood programs Chapter topics include an overview of these programs and detailed information pertaining to operationalizing and implementing of them such as considering regulations and establishing policies leading and managing personnel planning the physical facility financing and budgeting and working with families For administrators of early childhood programs

Maria Montessori's Erdkinder Ela Eckert, 2022-10 Adolescents need a school that is not a school This claim by Maria Montessori dating from the 1930s is increasingly shared today Consistently based on the developmental needs in adolescence Maria Montessori designed the concept of a Center for Study and Work in the Countryside for students aged 12-18 years which gives young people the opportunity to learn about the basic structures of production trade and services in a manageable transparent and at the same time protected setting through Practice Theory linked experiences The book presents the basics of Maria Montessori's concept and gives through reports with practitioners and interviews with Montessori experts insights into authentic implementations of the Farm school concept and thus into a learning arrangement that allows young people a high degree of responsibility and participation and strengthens their commitment to a sustainable approach to natural resources and a peaceful way of living The book also addresses schools without a Farm school practice and shows ways of approaching crucial components of this authentic and highly topical concept Basic Montessori David Gettman,1987 Memory, Identity and the Colonial Encounter in India Ezra Rashkow, Sanjukta Ghosh, Upal Chakrabarti,2017-08-18 This book sheds new light on the dynamics of the colonial encounter between Britain and India It highlights how various analytical approaches to this encounter can be creatively mobilised to rethink entanglements of memory and identity emerging from British rule in the subcontinent This volume reevaluates central long standing debates about the historical impact of the British Raj by deviating from hegemonic and top down civilizational perspectives It focuses on interactions relations and underlying meanings of the colonial experience The narratives of memory identity and the legacy of the colonial encounter are woven together in a diverse range of essays on subjects such as colonial and nationalist memorials British Eurasian Dalit and Adivasi identities regional political configurations and state initiatives and patterns of control By drawing on empirically rich regional and chronological historical studies this book will be essential reading for students and researchers of history political science colonial studies cultural studies and South Asian studies A Montessori Handbook Maria Montessori,1966 Half the text of this book consists of Dr Montessori s Own Handbook the only authentic practical manual of the Montessori Method and the other half consists of new material on current Montessori theory and practice This volume the first to integrate Dr Montessori s writings with up to date commentary is a preeminently practical book containing her whole theory and its application in a nutshell The book is designed to be useful for both practicing teachers and interested parents Each section of the Montessori text is introduced by an interpretative commentary and accompanied by a brief essay relating that particular aspect of Montessori to current educational practices An Appendix provides a guide to what to look for in a good Montessori school How to Raise a Brighter Child : the Case for Early Learning Joan Wagner Beck,1975 Maria Montessori and Modern Educational Thought Larry Foster,1980 Education and Hope in Troubled Times H.
