The 2016 Rio Olympic Games took place in a scenario of enormous economic challenges and persistent inequalities. In contrast to all previous Olympic experiences, Brazil faced its worst economic recession ever recorded during the preparation phase for the Games. In addition to the national crisis, falling oil prices and corruption scandals fuelled the State of Rio's economic downfall. This book specifically assesses the relative social performance of Rio's city population with respect to control groups covers traditional aspects of the Games legacy such as tourism infrastructure and sports practice includes ordinary day by day aspects of the city's life such as education employment and housing and scrutinizes critical areas such as urban mobility gentrification and Guanabara Bay's pollution. The English Professor Margaret R. O'Leary/Dennis S. O'Leary, 2016-02-04. Across the span of more than forty years Raphael Dorman O'Leary a professor of English rhetoric and English literature taught his students at the University of Kansas to think straight to put sinew into their sentences and to embrace the magnificent literary treasures of their mother tongue. The English Professor by authors Margaret R O'Leary and Dennis S O'Leary offers a narrative of the life work and times of a revered Midwestern university English teacher. This memoir narrates how the professor born in 1866 was raised on a Kansas farm in the post bellum era. Like his father before him he was committed to a life of learning and teaching. His colleagues knew him for his unpretentious exterior honesty and integrity and his flashing anger at cheapness vulgarity pretense and above all charlatanism. When Professor O'Leary died after a short illness in 1936 his personal effects passed through two generations to his grandson Dennis S O'Leary who with his wife Margaret discovered his papers while restoring a family house. The trove of material served as the core resource for the compilation of The English Professor. It provides insights into the histories of Kansas and the University of Kansas and of Harvard University as well as perspectives on higher education including the teaching of English rhetoric language literature journalism and oratory in the United States.
