

300 creative writing prompts for kids

Imagine a giant box is delivered to your front doorstep with your name on it. What's inside and what happens when you open it?

Write a short story about what it might be like if you woke up one morning with a mermaid tail.

Write about what would it be like if you had an alligator as a pet.

If you were in charge of the whole world, what would you do to make the world a happier place?

Imagine that dogs take over the world. What do they make the humans do?

Write about 3 places you would like to travel someday. What do these three places have in common?

Write a poem that starts with the word "I".

How do you feel when someone takes something of yours without asking? What is a good way to deal with it when that happens?

Imagine you walk out your front door one morning and it is raining popcorn! What do you do?

Müller,2017-01-11 Increasing specialization within the discipline of English and American Studies has shifted the focus of scholarly discussion toward theoretical reflection and cultural contexts These developments have benefitted the discipline in more ways than one but they have also resulted in a certain neglect of close reading As a result students and researchers interested in such material are forced to turn to scholarship from the 1960s and 1970s much of which relies on dated methodological and ideological presuppositions The handbook aims to fill this gap by providing new readings of texts that figure prominently in the literature classroom and in scholarly debate from James s The Ambassadors to McCarthy s The Road These readings do not revert naively to a time before theory Instead they distil the insights of literary and cultural theory into concise introductions to the historical background the themes the formal strategies and the reception of influential literary texts and they do so in a jargon free language accessible to readers on all levels of qualification The

Routledge International Handbook of Creative Learning Julian Sefton-Green,Pat Thomson,Ken Jones,Liora Bresler,2011-07-15 The concept of creative learning extends far beyond Arts based learning or the development of individual creativity It covers a range of processes and initiatives throughout the world that share common values systems and practices aimed at making learning more creative This applies at individual classroom or whole school level always with the aim of fully realising young people s potential Until now there has been no single text bringing together the significant literature that explores the dimensions of creative learning despite the work of artists in schools and the development of a cadre of creative teaching and learning specialists Containing a mixture of newly commissioned chapters reprints and updated versions of previous publications this book brings together major theorists and current research Comprising of key readings in creative education it will stand as a uniquely authoritative text that will appeal to those involved in initial and continuing teacher education as well as research academics and policy specialists Sections include a general introduction to the field of creative learning arts learning traditions with sub sections on discrete art forms such as drama and visual art accounts of practice from artist teacher partnerships whole school change and reforms curriculum change assessment evaluative case studies of impact and effect global studies of policy change around creative learning Teaching Children Mathematics ,2003 The Special Child in the Library Barbara Holland Baskin,Karen H.
