Plotting Justice Narrative Ethics And Literary Culture After 9 11:

Plotting Justice Georgiana Banita, 2012-10-01 Have the terrorist attacks of September 11 shifted the moral coordinates of contemporary fiction And how might such a shift reflected in narrative strategies and forms relate to other themes and trends emerging with the globalization of literature This book pursues these questions through works written in the wake of 9 11 and examines the complex intersection of ethics and narrative that has defined a significant portion of British and American fiction over the past decade Don DeLillo Pat Barker Aleksandar Hemon Lorraine Adams Michael Cunningham and Patrick McGrath are among the authors Georgiana Banita considers Their work illustrates how post 9 11 literature expresses an ethics of equivocation in formal elements of narrative in a complex scrutiny of justice and in tense dialogues linking this fiction with the larger political landscape of the era Through a broad historical and cultural lens Plotting Justice reveals links between the narrative ethics of post 9 11 fiction and events preceding and following the terrorist attacks events that defined the last half of the twentieth century from the Holocaust to the Balkan War and those that 9 11 precipitated from war in Afghanistan to the Abu Ghraib scandal Challenging the rhetoric of the war on terror the book honors the capacity of literature to articulate ambiguous forms of resistance in ways that reconfigure the imperatives and responsibilities of narrative for the twenty first century American Literature in Transition, 2000-2010 Rachel Greenwald

Cartographies of Exile Karen Elizabeth Bishop, 2016-04-20 This book proposes a fundamental relationship between exile and mapping It seeks to understand the cartographic imperative inherent in the exilic condition the exilic impulses fundamental to mapping and the varied forms of description proper to both The vital intimacy of the relationship between exile and mapping compels a new spatial literacy that requires the cultivation of localized dynamic reading practices attuned to the complexities of understanding space as text and texts as spatial artifacts The collection asks what kinds of maps do exiles make How are they conceived drawn read Are they private maps or can they be shaped collectively What is their relationship to memory and history How do maps provide for new ways of imagining the fractured experience of exile and offer up both new strategies for reading displacement and new displaced reading strategies

Where does exilic mapping fit into a history of cartography particularly within the twentieth century spatial turn The original work that makes up this interdisciplinary collection presents a varied look at cartographic strategies employed in writing art and film from the pre Contact Americas to the Renaissance to late postmodernism the effects of exile in its many manifestations on cartographic textual systems ways of seeing and forms of reading the challenges of traversing and mapping unstable landscapes and restrictive social and political networks and the felicities and difficulties of both giving into the map and attempting to escape the map that provides for exile in the first place Cartographies of Exile will be of interest to students and scholars working in literary and cultural studies gender sexuality and race studies anthropology art history and architecture film performance visual studies and the fine arts

Revolting Indolence Marcos Gonzalez,2024-12-03

How indolent practices in Latinx LGBTQ culture challenge capitalist imperatives to be productive Revolting Indolence makes a case for laziness as an aesthetic political strategy for countering the oppressive logics of cisheteronormative racial capitalism Focusing on ways in which queer and trans Latinx people demonstrate the unwillingness of their participation in productivist ethics and allied respectability politics Marcos Gonzalez argues that slacking off lounging daydreaming and partying are liberatory practices revolts that in turn are treated as revolting Gonzalez explores how queer and trans Latinx artists refute discourses in which work is a moral good In Paris Is Burning RuPaul s Drag Race documentary photography of queer and trans Latinx life in Los Angeles and other sources Gonzalez identifies two lazy styles first flagrant refusals of work that critique capitalist reason and second the invention of alternative aesthetic worlds beyond racial capitalism and violence targeting queer and trans people whose rejection of the cisgender nuclear family paradigm is rightly seen as threatening the stability of a functioning capitalist system Reclaiming laziness as a resource for radical imagining Revolting Indolence asks us to do that which we want most and which capitalist exploitation can least tolerate to slow down

The Cultural

Imaginary of Terrorism in Public Discourse, Literature, and Film Michael Frank,2017-06-14 This study investigates the overlaps between political discourse and literary and cinematic fiction arguing that both are informed by and contribute to the cultural imaginary of terrorism Whenever mass mediated acts of terrorism occur they tend to trigger a proliferation of threat scenarios not only in the realm of literature and film but also in the statements of policymakers security experts and journalists In the process the discursive boundary between the factual and the speculative can become difficult to discern To elucidate this phenomenon this book proposes that terror is a halfway house between the real and the imaginary For what characterizes terrorism is less the single act of violence than it is the fact that this act is perceived to be the beginning or part of a potential series and that further acts are expected to occur As turn of the century writers such as Stevenson and Conrad were the first to point out this gives terror a fantastical dimension a fact reinforced by the clandestine nature of both terrorist and counter terrorist operations Supported by contextual readings of selected texts and films from The Dynamiter and The Secret Agent through late Victorian science fiction to post 9 11 novels and cinema this study explores the complex interplay between actual incidents of political violence the surrounding discourse and fictional engagement with the issue to show how terrorism becomes an object of fantasy Drawing on research from a variety of disciplines The Cultural Imaginary of Terrorism will be a valuable resource for those with interests in the areas of Literature and Film Terrorism Studies Peace and Conflict Studies Trauma Studies and Cultural Studies Handbook of Transatlantic North American Studies Julia Straub, 2016-05-10 Transatlantic literary studies have provided important new perspectives on North American British and Irish literature They have led to a revision of literary history and the idea of a national literature They have changed the perception of the Anglo American literary market and its many processes of transatlantic production distribution reception and criticism Rather than dwelling on comparisons or engaging with the notion of influence transatlantic literary studies seek to understand North American British and Irish literature as linked with each other by virtue of multi layered historical and cultural ties and pay special attention to the many refractions and mutual interferences that have characterized these traditions since colonial times This handbook brings together articles that summarize some of the crucial transatlantic concepts debates and topics The contributions contained in this volume examine periods in literary and cultural history literary movements individual authors as well as genres from a transatlantic perspective combining theoretical insight with textual analysis Unspeakable Peter C. Herman, 2019-09-17 Unspeakable Literature and Terrorism from the Gunpowder Plot to 9 11 explores the representation of terrorism in plays novels and films across the centuries Time and time again writers and filmmakers including William Shakespeare Joseph Conrad Henry James Gillo Pontecorvo Don DeLillo John Updike and Steven Spielberg refer to terrorist acts as beyond comprehension a deed without a name but they do not stop there Instead of creating works that respond to terrorism by providing comforting narratives reassuring audiences and readers of their moral superiority and the perfidy of the terrorists these writers and filmmakers confront the unspeakable by attempting to see the world from the terrorist s perspective and by examining the roots of terrorist violence Walt Whitman Quarterly Review ,2013 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Christian Register and Boston Observer... ,1886 Alternative Press Index ,1997 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1998 American Book Publishing Record ,2002 TLLS, the Times Literary Supplement ,1971 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1998-04 The Book Review Digest ,2007 Religion Index One ,2003 Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing, R5ference Reed, 1995-12 Artful Breakdowns Georgiana Banita, Lee Konstantinou, 2023-03-02 Contributions by Georgiana Banita Colin Beineke Harriet Earle Ariela Freedman Liza Futerman Shawn Gilmore Sarah Hamblin Cara Koehler Lee Konstantinou Patrick Lawrence Philip Smith and Kent Worcester A carefully curated wide ranging edited volume tracing Art Spiegelman s exceptional trajectory from underground rebellion to mainstream success Artful Breakdowns The Comics of Art Spiegelman reveals his key role in the rise of comics as an art form and of the cartoonist as artist The collection grapples with Spiegelman s astonishing versatility from his irreverent underground strips influential avant garde magazine RAW the expressionist style of the comics classic Maus the illustrations to the Jazz Age poem The Wild Party and his response to the September 11 terrorist attacks to his iconic cover art for the New Yorker his children's books and various cross media collaborations The twelve chapters cut across Spiegelman's career to document continuities and ruptures that the intense focus on Maus has obscured yielding an array of original readings Spiegelman's predilection for collage improvisation and the potent protest of silence shows his allegiance to modernist art His cultural critique and anticapitalist antimilitary positions shed light on his vocal public persona while his deft intertextual strategies of mixing media archives from comics to photography and film amplify the poignance of his works Developing new approaches to Spiegelman's comics such as the publication history of Maus the history of immigration and xenophobia and the cartoonist's elevation of children's comics the collection leaves no doubt that despite the accolades his accessible comics have garnered we have yet to grasp the full range of Spiegelman's achievements in the realm of comics and beyond

Narrative Innovation in 9/11 Fiction Magali Cornier Michael, 2014 Narrative Innovation in 9/11 Fiction explores fiction that experiments in innovative ways with formal strategies so as to engage with the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center towers and their repercussion This study demonstrates how certain novels create narratives about the 9/11 attacks that refuse to shy away from exploring and representing their difficult and problematic aspects and in fact insist on doing so as the only means of coming to terms with the events in all their cultural and historical specificity As such these texts implicitly advocate a notion of literature as a dynamic negotiation of the relationship between aesthetics ethics politics culture and history Indeed they assert and reassert the viability of literature as a mode of critical inquiry that can engage and contribute to the socio political debates of its time and to the construction of narratives about significant historical and cultural events
