

PLTW Final Exam Questions With 100% Correct Answers 2024

Precision - Correct Answer-Engineers communicate precisely to others

Use clear definitions

State the meaning of variables

Are careful about specifying units

Calculate accurately

Express answers with a degree of precision appropriate for the problem context

Why is it important to use constraints when sketching with your 3D modeling program? - Correct Answer-Because constraints allow you to move shapes accordingly in order to best represent the object you are sketching.

Why are some constraints automatically applied by the software, but you must manually apply others? - Correct Answer-Because some shapes come with automatic constraints. Squares for instance, have two sets of parallel sides and all sides are equal in length.
