Storying the Ecocatastrophe Helena Duffy, Katarina Leppänen, 2024-05-31 How do writers and artists represent the climate catastrophe so that their works stir audiences to political action or at least raise their environmental awareness without however appearing didactic Storying the Ecocatastrophe attempts to answer this question while interrogating the potential of narrative to become a viable political force The collection of essays achieves this by examining the representational strategies and ideological goals of contemporary cultural productions about climate change These productions have been created across different genres such as the traditional novel dance performance solarpunk economic report collage and space opera as well as across different languages and cultures The volume's twelve chapters demonstrate that rising temperatures erratic weather extinction of species depletion of resources and coastal erosion and flooding are an effect of our abusive relationship with nature They also show that our use of nuclear power extraction of natural resources and extensive farming including heavy reliance on pesticides intersect with intrahuman violence as fleshed out by heteropatriarchy racism neo colonialism and capitalism They finally argue that human activity has indirectly contributed to other contemporary crises namely the migrant crisis and the spread of contagious diseases such as Covid 19 Chapter 8 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Postfeminist Film & Literary Aesthetics Alyce Corbett, 2025-05-23 Postfeminist Film Literary Aesthetics In Search of the Female Gaze represents a novel and comprehensive study of the aesthetic and affective textual innovations of women in the 21st century from a postfeminist perspective This book both defines and helps shape the contours of four fast growing critically and commercially popular modes millennial film and fiction metamodernism an anti narrative and decorative realm named here as still life and new cli fi in which there is no clear male equivalent or in which women's work can be read as a distinct aesthetic force As the textual constellation of now is being mapped and its key texts being canonised this book contributes to the current recentring of aesthetic taste that is occurring in literature film and surrounding criticism making greater space for the appreciation of female aesthetics and for future inquiries in this field
