Garcia, Antonio

S A Army 2016:

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994. In South Africa's changed political state, how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy? This book presents an overview of the security environment, how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement, force preparation, force employment and force sustainability. The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force, the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy, recruitment and retention, military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment, gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged. HIV/AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness. In closing, the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation, spelling out some lessons learned. The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil-military relations of countries around the world.

Guns & Roses: Comparative Civil-Military Relations in the Changing Security Environment Steven Ratuva, Radomir Compel, Sergio Aguilar, 2019-01-04 This edited volume provides a critical and comparative discussion of the changing synergy between the military and society in the dramatically transforming global security climate, drawing on examples from the Asian Pacific, African, Middle Eastern, European and South American regions. The book is interdisciplinary and covers wide-ranging issues relating to civil-military relations, democratization, regional security, ethnicity, peace building and peace keeping, civilian oversight, internal repression, gender, regime change and civil society.

Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa. It was rated the continent's largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20. It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa. Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant, there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon. This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa's post-Apartheid foreign policy. Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established African, Western, Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts, the book examines the current pattern of the country's foreign relations in impressive detail. The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive, including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa's foreign policy, peace making, defence and security, bilateral relations in Southern, Central, West, Eastern and North Africa, bilateral relations with the US, China, Britain, France and Japan, the country's key external multilateral relations with the UN, the BRICS economic grouping, the African Caribbean and Pacific Group (ACP) as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization (WTO). An essential resource for researchers, the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies, foreign policy, history, international relations international law security studies political economy and development studies Annual Report South Africa. Department of Defence, 2016 Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology Nicole Dodd, Petrus C. Bester, Justin van der Merwe, 2020-05-13 Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology is a well timed extremely thought provoking imperative particular to the African context and deals with a highly contemporary issue within the people management and the management studies fields specifically in the military field and context This is specifically of importance as military psychology is a behavioural science that combines theory and practical application Prof Karel Stanz University of Pretoria South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Garcia, Antonio, 2018-08-16 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade FIB as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo MONUSCO tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions What was more significant was that sub Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB South Africa Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIB s objectives This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations In this undertaking a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations Furthermore there are sections on operational constructs capstone and operating concepts doctrine and structural elements as well a section on mine action This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges The Quarterly Army List Great Britain.
