Community as Church, Church as Community Michael Plekon, 2021-07-22 Parishes of all denominations are in decline shrinking closing dying We know that there are increasing numbers young and older who are religious nones and dones This book explores why the decline is taking place why the distancing is going on But it goes on to examine parishes from all over the country and from various church bodies that are resurrecting The central theme of death and resurrection shapes the analysis of parishes covered Parishes are resurrecting by reinventing their ministries by repurposing their building to better serve their neighborhoods thus replanting and reconnecting with them All of this is the Spirit s doing but through the community of sisters and brothers who make up each congregation of faith Community as the core of church is the other reality shaping the book's reflection And community a parish being with those around living for more than its own survival are visions for going forward Other aspects of congregational life are also examined most importantly the pastors how they serve when budgets shrink how they are trained how pastors act with the community not above it No recipes are suggested for parish resurrection but the stories of the parishes that have revived bear within numerous lessons for us in the future SACRED SPACE FOR LENT 2018 IRISH JESUITS.,2018 Ethics and Christian Musicking Nathan Myrick,Mark Porter,2021-03-22 The relationship between musical activity and ethical significance occupies long traditions of thought and reflection both within Christianity and beyond From concerns regarding music and the passions in early Christian writings through to moral panics regarding rock music in the 20th century Christians have often gravitated to the view that music can become morally weighted building a range of normative practices and prescriptions upon particular modes of ethical judgment But how should we think about ethics and Christian musical activity in the contemporary world As studies of Christian musicking have moved to incorporate the experiences agencies and relationships of congregations ethical questions have become implicit in new ways in a range of recent research how do communities negotiate questions of value in music How are processes of encounter with a variety of different others negotiated through musical activity What responsibilities arise within musical communities This volume seeks to expand this conversation Divided into four sections the book covers the relationship of Christian musicking to the body responsibilities and values identity and encounter and notions of the self The result is a wide ranging perspective on music as an ethical practice particularly as it relates to contemporary religious and spiritual communities This collection is an important milestone at the intersection of ethnomusicology musicology religious studies and theology It will be a vital reference for scholars and practitioners reflecting on the values and practices of worshipping communities in the contemporary world
