SENCO s guide for doing the job perfectly Real education isn t about a race to the top of the class or the league table It isn t about being better than anyone else or accumulating as many qualifications as you possibly can It s about being helped to be the best you can possibly be by professionals who are skilled enough to know how to do it and compassionate enough to take the time to do it well Nowhere is this philosophy more important than when it comes to supporting children with special educational needs and this book commissioned for our Perfect Series by a SEN consultant with many years experience will help you achieve just that The Inclusion Toolkit Sarah Herbert,2011-08-10 With downloadable electronic resources Are you looking for ways to make your classroom more inclusive to children with learning difficulties The practical strategies suggested in this book are supported by current research into effective teaching and learning and the author shows you how inclusion friendly teaching could look in your classroom The book is aimed at the teacher who wishes to respond to the diversity of learning needs of children that are placed within their mainstream classroom without teaching each child differently The advice given for teaching all learners aged 7 to 14 will help you ensure that you are providing well for all your learners that only a very few will need substantially different support Rather than focussing on the differences between learners the common strategies that will enhance the learning of all based on the common concerns of class teachers working with pupils who have Special Educational Needs are identified Structured around the three areas of memory motivation and communication which are key to addressing inclusion friendly teaching the book covers the memory friendly classroom the motivation friendly classroom the communication friendly classroom Ideal for all classroom teachers working with children aged 7 to 14 and with plenty of supporting material available to download from the SAGE website which works in tandem with each chapter of the book this toolkit will make inclusive teaching a reality Outstanding Leadership in

Special Educational Needs Alison Ekins,Lorna Hughes,2024-05-20 This book provides new and experienced Special Educational Needs Coordinators SENCOs with a critical approach to understanding the importance of outstanding leadership of Special Educational Needs and Disabilities SEND and how to effectively meet the current SEND policy requirements Closely informed by the statutory guidance for SENCOs this book covers all aspects of this challenging leadership role within the school It provides a principled approach to understanding the challenges and complexity of SEND within the current context Through concise summaries of policy and current research critical discussions reflective activities case studies as well as practical examples it helps the reader engage more deeply in critical thinking about the effectiveness of current practices in their own school setting and ways to develop them further for the future Alison Ekins and Lorna Hughes establish that outstanding leadership in special educational needs is not something that can be achieved just by a single individual The SENCO has a key role in enabling and empowering everyone in their school setting to understand SEND and engage actively in the development of more inclusive systems to meet the needs of diverse pupils Outstanding Leadership in Special Educational Needs will therefore support everyone involved in education to develop their understanding of SEND It is key reading for teachers educational leaders and policymakers
