Pamela J. Stewart,Andrew Strathern,2014-01-16 Ritual has emerged as a major focus of academic interest As a concept the idea of ritual integrates the study of behavior both within and beyond the domain of religion Ritual can be both secular and religious in character There is renewed interest in questions such as Why do rituals exist at all What has been and continues to be their place in society How do they change over time Such questions exist against a backdrop of assumptions about development modernization and disenchantment of the world Written with the specific needs of students of religious studies in mind Ritual Key Concepts in Religion surveys the field of ritual studies looking at it both historically within anthropology and in terms of its contemporary relevance to world events Rituals and Traditional Events in the Modern World Jennifer Laing,Warwick Frost,2014-10-30 Many events have evolved over centuries drawing on local customs and conditions However as the world becomes increasingly globalised traditional events and the identities they support are increasingly being challenged and rituals may be lost Reacting against this trend towards homogeneity communities strive to preserve and even recreate their traditional events which may require rituals to be resurrected or reinvented for a new audience The aim of this book is to explore the role of traditional events and rituals in the modern world The 16 chapters cover a range of case studies of the performance of ritual through events including their historical antecedents and development over time as well as their role in society link with identities both seemingly fixed and fluid and their continued relevance The cases examined are not museum pieces but rather vibrant festivals and events that continue to persist Drawing on the power of history and cultural tradition they are manifestations of heritage existing in three temporalities celebrating the past occurring in the present and aiming to continue into and influence the future Iconic events including Chinese New Year Hogmanay and the New Orleans Mardi Gras are examined and examples are drawn from a diverse range of countries such as South Korea China Laos the United States Scotland Italy India and Haiti This volume provides a deep understanding upon the role of tradition and ritual within events from a global perspective and will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics interested in events heritage and culture

Tertullian the African David E. Wilhite,2011-06-24 Who was Tertullian and what can we know about him This work explores his social identities focusing on his North African milieu Theories from the discipline of social cultural anthropology including kinship class and ethnicity are accommodated and applied to selections of Tertullian s writings In light of postcolonial concerns this study utilizes the categories of Roman colonizers indigenous Africans and new elites The third category new elites is actually intended to destabilize the other two denying any essential Roman or African identity Thereafter samples from Tertullian's writings serve to illustrate comparisons of his own identities and the identities of his rhetorical opponents The overall study finds Tertullian's identities to be manifold complex and discursive Additionally his writings are understood to reflect antagonism toward Romans including Christian Romans which is significant for his so called Montanism and Romanized Africans While Tertullian accommodates much from Graeco Roman literature laws and customs he nevertheless retains a strongly stated non Roman ness and an African ity which is highlighted in the present monograph

Of Death and Birth Barbara Schuler,2009

Scholars of popular Hindu religion in India have always been fascinated by oral texts and rituals but surprisingly only few attempts have as yet been made to analyse the relationship between rituals and texts systematically This book contributes to the filling of this gap Focusing on the dynamics of a local non Brahmanical ritual its modular organisation and inner logic the interaction between narrative text and ritual and the significance of the local versus translocal nature of the text in the ritual context the study provides a broad range of issues for comparison It demonstrates that examining texts in their context helps to understand better the complexity of religious traditions and the way in which ritual and text are programmatically employed The author offers a vivid description of a hitherto unnoticed ritual system along with the first translation of a text called the Icakkiyamman Katai IK Composed in the Tamil language the IK represents a substantially longer and embellished form of a core versio which probably goes as far back as the seventh century C E Unlike the classical source this text has been incorporated into a living tradition and is being constantly refashioned A range of text versions have been encapsulated in the form of a conspectus which will shed light on the text's variability or fixity and will add to our knowledge of bardic creativity Includes a film by the author on DVD
