Phonics Screening Check

What is phonics?

Phonics is the study of the sounds of words and how they are written. It is the study of the relationship between the sounds of words and the letters that represent them.

Phonics is a key part of learning to read and write. It helps children to understand how words are made and how they are written. This helps them to learn to read and write more easily.

How is phonics taught?

Phonics is taught in a variety of ways. Some children learn to read by looking at the letters and sounds of words. Others learn by listening to the sounds of words and trying to write them. Some children learn by using a combination of these methods.

Phonics is taught in a way that is suitable for each child. Teachers will use a variety of methods to help children learn to read and write. This may include using letters, sounds, and words to help children understand how words are made and how they are written.

What is the phonics screening check?

The phonics screening check is a test that is given to children in Year One. It is designed to check whether children have the basic skills that they need to be able to read and write. The test is given to all children in Year One and is a compulsory part of the school curriculum.

What is the purpose of the check?

The purpose of the check is to identify children who may have difficulties with reading and writing. This allows teachers to provide extra support to these children and to help them to learn to read and write more easily. The check is also used to monitor the progress of children who are learning to read and write.
