Sign Language Flash Cards Monta Z. Briant, 2019 Crossover Picturebooks Sandra L. Beckett, 2013-06-17 This book situates the picturebook genre within the widespread international phenomenon of crossover literature examining an international corpus of picturebooks including artists' books wordless picturebooks and celebrity picturebooks that appeal to readers of all ages Focusing on contemporary picturebooks Sandra Beckett shows that the picturebook has traditionally been seen as a children's genre but in the eyes of many authors, illustrators, and publishers it is a narrative form that can address any and all age groups Innovative graphics and formats as well as the creative often complex dialogue between text and image provide multiple levels of meaning and invite readers of all ages to consider texts that are primarily marketed as children's books The interplay of text and image that distinguishes the picturebook from other forms of fiction and makes it a unique art form also makes it the ultimate crossover genre Crossover picturebooks are often very complex texts that are challenging for adults as well as children Many are characterized by difficult adult themes genre blending metafictive discourse intertextuality sophisticated graphics and complex text-image interplay Exciting experiments with new formats and techniques as well as novel interactions with new media and technologies have made the picturebook one of the most vibrant and innovative contemporary literary genres one that seems to know no boundaries Crossover Picturebooks is a valuable addition to the study of a genre that is gaining increasing recognition and appreciation and contributes significantly to the field of children's literature as a whole The Primary English Encyclopedia Margaret Mallett, 2008 This encyclopaedia includes short definitions and explanations of current UK requirements It includes an introduction identifying the heart of primary English and up to date information and key issues Guide Book to Childhood William Byron Forbush, 1916
