Silicon Valley in the 2030s is not so different from today, filled with vaguely sexist CEOs, contested inequality, politics, and startups that are almost a joke. After she loses her job when her startup folds and loses her home to California's annual wildfires, Sara joins the latest thing: an unnamed tech giant's quasi-utopian community floating above the drowned land that was once Monterey. Alone on the inside with a thousand mysteriously chosen strangers, Sara is insulated by an all-powerful corporation from the turmoil of crumbling governments and a changing climate. Everyone around her seems incredibly thankful, rescued from gig work and student loans and bad news, but she can't find her own gratitude. As she learns more about her new home, she begins to see the cracks in its perfect facade. She must choose between surveillance and lies from the anonymous algorithms that protect her or face a vulnerable life outside the system to which she has signed away her next five years. Leaving, she learns, may not even be an option. The Alliance Chris G. Wright, 2017-01-30. The Alliance lays the groundwork for a 6-volume science fiction series combining both space opera and post-apocalyptic elements of Earth's thrilling journey from dystopia to utopia to interstellar travel and space colonization and the evolution of diverse societies, some human, some not, across the centuries, all in the shadow of a galactic menace. SHORT DESCRIPTION Individuals from different walks of life and regions of the Milky Way go head-to-head with an alien tyrant and his conquest, unaware that they have become pawns of omniscient entities and drawn into an elaborate ploy of universal proportions. LONG DESCRIPTION Earth's greatest military powers have been crushed to a shadow of their former glory.
