DuPree,2013-09-13 First Published in 1996 Those of us who aspire to know about the black church in the African American experience are never satisfied We know so much more about the Christian and church life of black Americans than we did even a dozen years ago but all the recent discoveries whet our insatiable appetites to know it all That goal will never be attained of course but there do remain many conquerable worlds Sherry Sherrod DuPree set her mind to conquering one of those worlds She has persisted with the results detailed here A huge number of items are available to inform us about Holiness Pentecostal and Charismatic congregations and organizations in the African American Christian community

The Cultural Lives of Domestic Objects in Late Antiquity Jo Stoner,2019-03-19 In this study Jo Stoner investigates the role of domestic material culture in Late Antiquity Using archaeological visual and textual evidence from across the Roman Empire the personal meanings of late antique possessions are revealed through reference to theoretical approaches including object biography Heirlooms souvenirs and gift objects are discussed in terms of sentimental value before the book culminates in a case study reassessing baskets as an artefact type This volume succeeds in demonstrating personal scales of value for artefacts moving away from the focus on economic and social status that dominate studies in this field It thus represents a new interpretation of domestic material culture from Late Antiquity revealing how objects transformed houses into homes during this period

International Journal of Religious Education ,1927     The Gift in Antiquity Michael Satlow,2013-02-22 The Gift in Antiquity is an exciting and learned dialogue with Marcel Mauss s The Gift Forms and Functions of Exchange in Archaic Societies published ninety years ago The essays engage Mauss s model offering critique and nuance and sometimes push Mauss s insights far beyond what he had imagined While many anthologies are useful for the one or two essays they contain this volume offers a tightly organized collection useful as a reader in classics religion or anthropology courses John S Kloppenborg University of Toronto The Gift in Antiquity offers a rousing demonstration of the lessons to be learned from Marcel Mauss s early insight that gift giving offers a privileged way to understand social relations and social obligations The book brims with the excitement of scholars from different disciplines building on a common theoretical tool to offer new perspectives on topics in their own fields as well as on the foundational concept of the gift itself It is a book that all scholars of the ancient Mediterranean and Near East as well as all scholars interested in the gift will want to read David I Kertzer Brown University In his seminal essay The Gift 1922 French sociologist Marcel Mauss proposed an original theoretical framework for thinking about gift giving practices Emphasizing that all gifts were total social facts that created bonds of reciprocity between communities and individuals Mauss's framework has been fundamental in anthropological research The Gift in Antiquity applies Mauss's notion of gift giving as a catalyst in strengthening group bonds to the study of antiquity This thought provoking collection of 14 original essays covers such wide ranging topics as vows in the Hebrew Bible ancient Greek wedding gifts Hellenistic civic practices Latin literature Roman and Jewish burial practices and Jewish and Christian religious gifts along with wider theoretical and methodological reflections Collectively the essays open up a cross cultural dialogue that generates new ways of thinking about both antiquity and theories of gift giving and reciprocity The Gift in Antiquity offers illuminating insights into the enduring value of Mauss's work and the influential nature of reciprocity and exchange throughout the course of history
