New South Wales Legislative Council Practice Lynn Lovelock,John Evans,2008 This first edition of New South Wales Legislative Council Practice brings together the history practice and procedure of the New South Wales Legislative Council the Upper House of the New South Wales Parliament and the first and oldest legislative body in Australia Since the advent of responsible government in New South Wales in 1856 the New South Wales Legislative Council has been the focus of continuous struggle regarding its composition powers role and very existence However from its tumultuous history the Council has in recent years emerged as a democratically elected powerful and effective upper house in many ways mirroring the development of the Australian Senate Today the Council performs key functions within the New South Wales system of government including representing the people and scrutinising the executive government as a House of Review The rich history of the New South Wales Legislative Council has brought with it a wealth of parliamentary precedent with which to guide modern practice and procedures in the House While practitioners of parliamentary law and practice in New South Wales have long had access to authorities such as Erskine May s Parliamentary

Practice and Odgers Australian Senate Practice the publication of New South Wales Legislative Council Practice will provide an essential reference book to understanding parliamentary privilege practice and procedure in the New South Wales Upper House

Some Other Note Ross W. Duffin, 2018-01-09 English comedy from the fifteenth to the early seventeenth century abounds in song lyrics but most of the original tunes were thought to have been lost until now By deducing that playwrights borrowed melodies from songs they already knew Ross W Duffin has used the existing English repertory of songs both popular and composed to reconstruct hundreds of songs from more than a hundred plays and other stage entertainments rendering them performable with period music for the first time in five hundred years Motion Picture Herald ,1927
