Extended Essay Sample on Literature

This English extended essay investigates the question of women's role in the society which is described in the novel The Grapes of Wrath by American author John Steinbeck. The core of the article is exploring the role of females during the period of American Great Depression in the 1930s. It was the time when nation experienced famine, droughts, financial difficulties which lead to chaos in the country. John Steinbeck as the representative of Lost Generation describes those terrible conditions when people were forced to move cities, migrate to find food and shelter. The author puts a strong emphasis on role of women who took responsibility of hope-givers, breadwinners and made lots of emotional and physical efforts to save the values of integrity within the family and community. The extended essay and the additional supplement to the IB diploma programme answers questions about the reasons of American Great Depression and its negative influence through the prism of realistically described valleys of California and the life of Joad family. Research paper explores gender differences in the ability to combat difficulties, female's readiness to make the community close-knit, the more detailed characteristics of the principal female character Ma Joad, and the comparative analysis of Ma Joad and Rose of Sharon. The extended essay theory is based on analyzing books which are mentioned in works cited page as well as personal perception of the novel. The essay has clear structure which makes up four principal parts. This literature extended essay can be divided into outline, main body, conclusion, and references. Theoretical value is connected with the essay theory knowledge of the main trends in literature during the period between two world wars. Practical aspect is that the extended essay help students understand the necessity of investigating historical and social background of the authors and their pieces of writing. During the period of the late thirties, America experiences the rise in female's independence, and that could be noticed in the increased interest among the representatives of gentle sex to develop professional career. This tendency was even encouraged during Great Depression. Volatile financial and economic state of the country demanded resourceful and proactive people. Those extreme conditions gave women a great spur to show their power and ability to lead. John Steinbeck in his novel Grapes of Wrath describes the immensely significant role of women. He mentions that previously they had to "stand beside men" but when critical circumstances approached country, they became active and self-conscious community members. The American writer illustrates a unity of a mother's loving and leader's circumspect character of Ma Joad. This extended essay reveals subtleties of Steinbeck's depiction of females having the role of mother as life vocation. Ma Joad has instinct to help others, and she is concerned about both her own family and people of the community. The description of female characters plays significant role in the readers' perception of women. The writer depicts Joad's hazel eyes which have seen many tragic moments. They are full of memories, strengths, and even weaknesses which she hides from everyone. However, Steinbeck says that eyes are the...

Human Rights Education Dr Ghanshyam Vatsa, Gireesh Tripathi, Priyanka Malhotra, Ms. Kshitija Landge, 2022-09-26 This book presents a critical investigation of the creation dissemination and consumption of HRE as well as an analysis of how the discourse is created historically socially and politically via the practice of global organizations and local NGOs The concept that HRE is formed of ideas of human and education which are both complicated and have a myriad of facets is presented at the beginning of the book The book demonstrates how over the course of time a dominant discourse of HRE which was constructed by the institutional framework of the United Nations has come to prominence It also demonstrates how this dominant discourse is reproduced and validated through the practice of intermediary NGOs involved in HRE activities to community groups A large number of non governmental organizations NGOs all over the globe are using human rights education HRE as a method of community empowerment with the strong conviction that it would assist people in leading better lives These processes may be understood in a number of different ways one of which is that they convert universal human rights speech using words and symbols that make them relevant to the day to day lives of individuals and that have cultural resonance However an alternative and more radical viewpoint is that such processes should participate people in modes of critical examination into the ways that current power structures keep the status quo and regulate not only how we comprehend and speak regarding social injustice and but also how we act on it This is a more radical perspective
