

Movie Review: Django

Orientation:

Django- Unchained is actually the remake of 70's film Django, with the same basic story about a cowboy's life. However, you will not get only about that in this brand new Django- Unchained, because there are so many conflicts in the story that could get us involved into this drama-action film. The act of the actors and the actors is definitely make us who have watched, feel the untamed life in the time before the United States Civil War.

Interpretative Recount:

Django (Jamie Foxx) who is a black skin slave, struggling to survive while being sold too many plantation. He also separated from his wife Broomhilda (Kerry Washington), who is also sold to everywhere, as a slave. Coincidentally, Django met Dr King Schultz (Christopher Waltz), who has a side work as bounty hunters. Turns out Django knew about some people, who are a wanted man, who is being hunt by Dr Schultz. Django and doctor then making a deal, which is to search those people, find them, and kill them. In addition, as a reward, Django will be given 1/3 of the victims price. Soon after they found the wanted men, they successfully killed them. Dr Schultz then knew that Django has a great ability to use a rifle gun. Dr Schultz then offering to Django to work with him during winter season, and Dr Schultz promised to help him finding his wife, Django then agree. After collecting some money during winter season, they got an information that Broomhilda is working at Candy Land, owned by Calvin Candy (Leonardo DiCaprio), a great merchant from Mississippi. Not long after that, they finally met Mr. Candy and they finally can get into his house after they act as businessman who want to have a trade. In Calvin Candy's house they met his head slaver Stephen (Samuel L Jackson) and Broomhilda. But soon Stephen knows about their plan to take Broomhilda runaway, because there are no other options. Dr Schultz shot Mr. Candy. Some shooting then happened, but after almost killing, all men who wants to get him Django Surrender. Tomorrow after incident, Stephen trying to sell Django to another merchant. But Django successfully escaped. He then planning to make a revenge against Stephen and rest of Calvin Candy's family. He made it then, exploding Calvin Candy's house with some dynamite, and take Broomhilda away.

Evaluation:

Everyone who have watch it has rated Django- unchained as a drama-action film high. Quentin Tarantino as a producer could interpretative the hard life when slavery contaminating United States of America. At some reasons this film tells us that slavery is not a good thing, so is apartheid. The way of the story flows is is, not difficult to be followed, but still containing quite tensions due to some conflicts in it. This film must be one of the best drama film in 2012. We will not bored to watch this film, because the scene is almost a perfection, with a very little mistakes and the setting of the places is just wonderful. Those things is vital to hold the strength of the theme. Django- Unchained also has a good quality of sound display. The remake of song "Django" by Lutz Bacalov into English is perfect, and the combination between it and some modern song is fully balanced. For the characterization, Jamie Foxx, Christopher Waltz, Leo DiCaprio, Kerry Washington and Samuel L Jackson as the main character has definitely done a great job. However, it is not so surprising because they are all well known as a highly reputed actors and actor. It is very difficult to found the weaknesses of this film. Because as you know this film is make by many professional crew team from Quentin Tarantino.

Conclusion:

For the Action lover film, this film is perfect for you. However, don't make any mistakes because the drama in this film is also brilliant. So for those who haven't, you are strongly recommended to watch this movie.

Practical Approaches to Teaching Film Rachel S. Ritterbusch, 2020-07-24 Rachel Ritterbusch's Practical Approaches to Teaching Film is a collection of essays focusing on the use of film in settings ranging from an introductory film class to an upper division Women's Studies course. Drawing on their experience in the classroom, contributors to this anthology show how movies can be used to promote critical thinking, create an awareness of the male gaze, challenge dominant ideology, and unmask the constructedness of film. This volume treats a wide variety of film texts from box office hits like The Da Vinci Code to underappreciated art films such as Susan Streitfeld's Female Perversions from Le Moko and other French classics to more contemporary francophone works like Chaos and Rosetta from self-reflexive films that interrogate the act of filmmaking itself to those that draw attention to the phallocentric nature of cinematic apparatus. Common to all these essays is the belief that if used judiciously, film can be a valuable pedagogical tool. Aimed both at those currently teaching film and those wishing to do so, this volume provides practical support in the form of sample syllabi, assignments, and a glossary of film terms.

The Independent Film Experience Kevin J. Lindenmuth, 2002-02-14 You see them on the video shelves with titles such as Shadow Tracker, Psycho Girls and The Blair Witch Project. Skeptically, perhaps you rent one and slip it into the VCR. Hey, you think this isn't so bad, sometimes actually quite good. Suddenly you discover that there is a whole range of movies from filmmakers operating outside the studio system that have their own attractions that the big-budget fare can't match. You have of course discovered the world of independent filmmaking. A fascinating group of independent film directors and producers in interviews with the author discuss their work and the state of the independent film industry at the end of the 20th century. Joe Bagnardi, Dennis Devine, Andrew Harrison, Jeff Leroy, Andrew Parkinson, Brett Piper and 23 others cover such topics as the increased interest in independent films and how they are changing thanks to high-tech advances. These filmmakers vary widely in age, experience, formats and budgets and choice of subject matter, but they all have a great passion for their work.

Writing in Film Studies, from Professional Practice to Practical Pedagogy Bryan Mead, 2024-01-09 A common refrain heard from instructors in offices across the world is that students have a hard time producing quality written discourse. This is no different in the world of film studies, where many undergraduate students struggle to cogently discuss the films they watch in class. How can film instructors help students become better writers? This book answers this question by first uncovering the disciplinary expectations we have for students and then offering strategies to explicitly teach those expectations in the classroom. This book examines and identifies the disciplinary conventions of professional film studies discourse along with the expectations we have for student writing in undergraduate film courses. What becomes clear from this analysis is that the pedagogical expectations we have for students are aligned with and shaped by professional writing in the discipline It helps to uncover the argument types instructors take for granted and helps those teaching undergraduate students not only to know what those expectations are but also how to use that knowledge to foster better student writing
