LOOK FORS	4	3	2	1
	Student took command of decision making and the finished project matches their personal vision.	Student made more than half of the decisions while seeking help and advice from others on finished project.	Student makes some choices on finished project but takes the majority of ideas from others on finished project.	Student did not have a clear vision for project and allowed others to give them all ideas for project.
	Student was able to implement the impossible and create the unexpected.	Student was able to surprise us with a portion of the finished project.	Student did not surprise us but was able to make the mundane look new and exciting.	Student did not have any surprising aspects but used everyday project ideas.
	Student was plugged in and made several connections to previous learning.	Student was plugged in and made some connections to previous learning.	Student is holding the plug and shows they can make one connection to prior learning.	Student is unsure how to plug in and makes no connections to prior learning.

Sparking Student Creativity Patti Drapeau, 2014-09-23 Teaching isn't merely transmitting knowledge to students it's also about teaching students to approach learning in engaging and unexpected ways. In Sparking Student Creativity Practical Ways to Promote Innovative Thinking and Problem Solving author and researcher Patti Drapeau explores and explains research related to creativity and its relevance in today's standards based critical thinking focused classroom. The book vividly and comprehensively shows how creative lessons can meet and extend the expectations of curriculum standards such as the Common Core State Standards. How to incorporate creativity and assessment into daily classroom practices. How to develop a Creativity Road Map to guide instruction and How to design lessons that prompt and support creative thinking. In addition the book includes 40 grab and go ideas that infuse lesson plans with a spirit of exploration. No matter what grade levels or content areas you teach Sparking Student Creativity will help you to produce creative lesson components that directly address critical content target specific standards and require thoughtful products from students as they grow into independent learners and become successful students and adults.

Creativity in the Classroom Sarah Gulish, Stefanie Elfstrom, 2017-05-10 Creativity in the Classroom An Innovative Approach to Integrate Arts Education provides curricular ideas for enhancing creative work in the classroom through the lens of integrative arts. The authors both Art and Music Educators provide practical ways in which to engage in creative thinking and making that can be applied to a variety of educational settings. Their work stems from years in the classroom teaching an integrative arts course at a public school in the United States. Through exploring big ideas such as identity expression, storytelling, impact and reaction students learn to engage in a variety of creative art forms and work with others to create work that is meaningful. Each unit or big idea of study includes an explanation of the philosophy behind the unit an overview of project ideas and sample student workbook pages. Assessment strategies are provided with sample rubrics for evaluating student work.

Creative Book Reports Jane Feber, 2004 Encourage your students to actively demonstrate their comprehension of both fiction and non fiction with these alternative responses to literature. The thirty nine standards based projects in this resource appeal to all types of learners in grades 4-8.
