Christ's Entry into Brussels Dimitri Verhulst, 2014-02-06 It is announced that Jesus Christ is to visit Belgium in a few weeks time on its national day the 21st of July Coincidentally our narrator's mother dies and his marriage ends Feeling very low and fluctuating between resentment irony and cynicism he reports on the events and on the behaviour of his compatriots The authorities squabble about how to receive Christ They find an eleven year old girl in the asylum seekers centre to act as Christ's Aramaic interpreter Arabic Aramaic it's practically the same right Neighbours resolve ancient feuds and communities gather together to confess and forgive en masse no matter the depravity of the crime As the date draws near the whole city brightens up there's never been a nicer time to have a Second Coming This new novel by Dimitri Verhulst resembles a quirky pamphlet and a moral fable The narrator considers himself part of the lost generation which has no illusions about the state of the world both in absurd Belgium and in the distressingly imperfect world beyond He puts a finger on the symptomatic fever blisters of contemporary society of the so called malcontent mass With his bizarre imaginings harsh criticisms and stylistic verve he exposes an embarrassing reality which often makes you laugh conspiratorially and then cry

Autocar, 2005      Non-Discrimination in International Trade in Services Nicolas F. Diebold, 2010-10-21 The principle of non discrimination is fundamental to the regulation of international trade in goods and services In the context of trade in goods the concept of like products has become a key element of the legal analysis of whether a trade obstacle violates GATT non discrimination obligations The equivalent concept of like services and service suppliers in GATS rules on non discrimination has received little attention in WTO jurisprudence In light of the remaining uncertainties Nicolas Diebold analyses the legal problems of the GATS like services and services suppliers concept using a contextual and comparative methodology The likeness element is not analysed in isolation but in context with less favourable treatment and regulatory purpose as additional elements of non discrimination The book also explores how far theories from non discrimination rules in GATT NAFTA BITs and EC as well as market definition theories from competition law may be applied to likeness in GATS
