Commission, Createspace Independent Pub, 2014-12-23. This is the full report of the commission, originally published in 2004. The National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States, also known as the 9/11 Commission, an independent bipartisan commission created by congressional legislation and the signature of President George W. Bush in late 2002, was chartered to prepare a full and complete account of the circumstances surrounding the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, including preparedness for and the immediate response to the attacks. The Commission was also mandated to provide recommendations designed to guard against future attacks.

The 9/11 Commission Report David Ray Griffin, 2005. An analysis of the 9/11 Commission report argues that the Commission supported an officially sanctioned conspiracy theory while ignoring alternative explanations and charges that Commission members had conflicts of interest due to ties to the FBI and Department of Justice.
