Pew-Sitter's Search for God Houston M. Burnside,2010-08-11 Houston Burnside's journey of faith began in his childhood not unlike most children. This book helps the reader understand how people who touch us influence the images of God we take with us all our lives. This author was a seeker from the beginning. He shares in beautiful and sometimes painful stories how his concept of God changed through his life experiences. Every opportunity that came his way to test his faith was connected to people he learned to include in his circle of faith. He searched for God in family hardships and relationships in a grandmother who raised him during the first decade of his life with a loving mother who cared for him in the growing years and as an underage Marine in China where he met and loved missionaries who helped him on his journey. Coming home he married and had a family of his own bringing high points of joy and challenges. Houston tells his incredible story of seeking and winning a higher education which prepared him for pastoral ministry. He was ordained but still seeking. At 30 years old he sought God among the books and writings of giant theologians and philosophers as he studied for his Ph.D. He found God there too in the most unexpected places. Houston Burnside weaves his remarkable stories across the stepping stones of change bringing him through his 27 year career as a professor at San Diego State University. A Pew Sitter's Search for God will help you recognize the people in your life who impact your thinking and decision making. As the author says The quest never ends. The book offers quiet satisfaction and hope that all of life is good as long as the seeker never gives up. The
