Fairy Tale Retelling Primer:

Retelling Cinderella Nicola Darwood, Alexis Weedon, 2020-11-12 Cinderella's transformation from a lowly overlooked servant into a princess who attracts everyone's gaze has become a powerful trope within many cultures. Inspired by the Cinderella archive of books and collectables at the University of Bedfordshire, the essays in this collection demonstrate how the story remains active in various different societies where social and family relationships are adapting to modern culture. The volume explores the social arenas of dating apps and prom nights as well as contemporary issues about women's roles in the home and gender identity. Cinderella's cultural translation is seen through the contributors' international perspectives from Irish folklore to the Colombian Cenicienta (Cinderella of the coast) and Spanish literary history. Its transdisciplinarity ranges from fashion in Charles Perrault and the Brothers Grimm's publications to a comparison of Cinderella and Galatea on film and essays on British authors Nancy Spain, Anne Thackeray Ritchie, and Frances Hodgson Burnett.

The Oxford Companion to Children's Literature Daniel Hahn, Michael Morpurgo, 2015 The last thirty years have witnessed one of the most fertile periods in the history of children's books. A fascinating reference guide to the world of children's literature, this volume covers every genre from fairy tales to chapbooks, school stories to science fiction, comics to children's hymns.

Global Children's Literature in the College Classroom Sara Austin, Tanja Nathanael, 2023-05-22 Global Children's Literature in the College Classroom explores the importance of children's literature as a pedagogical resource in any college course. It can be used to introduce a complex topic, give students a glimpse into a specific culture, or expand the way students think about education and teaching. Global children's literature is particularly useful in language classrooms, education programs, and classes that discuss globalism and colonialism. This book includes fifteen essays representing fifteen countries and eight languages, divided into four sections. The first section of essays, Across the University, looks at children's literature in non-traditional settings, including British literature and multicultural studies, which considers what children's literature specifically brings to these courses. The second section, Borders and Crossings, examines how children's literature defines or defies political and cultural separations. The third section, Childhood Studies and Education, considers the importance of global children's literature in education classrooms as a way of promoting diversity and inclusion. The fourth section, Non-English Texts and Texts in Translation, focuses on the use of children's literature to teach language and folklore traditions in France, Russia, and Italy. The essay that closes this section discusses using children's literature to teach translation skills at the University of Taipei.

A Postmodern Analysis of the Little Red Riding Hood Tale Barbara Smith Chalou, 2002

From Primer to Pleasure in Reading Mary Florence Thwaite, 1972 Covers children's books in England from the invention of printing to 1914, with an outline of some developments in other countries, European and Anglophone.

Book Bulletin Chicago Public Library, 1918
