Global Trend Parenting Handbook:

Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education Barker, Megel R., Hansen, Robyn Conrad, Hammer, Liam, 2023-11-24 The Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education addresses the growing complexity and diversity of international schools by examining the critical issues and global trends faced by practitioners in this field. With a lack of research on the experiences and actions of school practitioners in these isolated workplaces this book aims to provide practical and evidence based solutions. The book covers a wide range of topics including equity and access diversity teacher retention legal frameworks school typology governance cultural competence third culture kids leadership and practice technology and parent engagement. Written by educational professionals researchers and anthropologists it offers a unique collection of voices from those with lived experiences in this field making it an invaluable resource for anyone interested in gaining a deeper understanding of the international school sector. Whether you are an educator researcher policymaker school leader lecturer or anthropologist the Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education is a must read comprehensive guide to the complexities and challenges of international education providing practical solutions for improving the quality of education in this rapidly evolving field. If you are looking to gain a nuanced understanding of the critical issues facing international schools and evidence based approaches for addressing these challenges this book is the perfect resource for you.

Parenting Across Cultures from Childhood to Adolescence Jennifer E. Lansford, W. Andrew Rothenberg, Marc H. Bornstein, 2021-02-25 This vital volume advances understanding of how parenting from childhood to adolescence changes or remains the same in a variety of sociodemographic psychological and cultural contexts providing a truly global understanding of parenting across cultures. Through the Parenting Across Cultures project the editors unveil findings from this hugely important comparative longitudinal study of parents and children in China Colombia Italy Jordan Kenya the Philippines Sweden Thailand and the United States. The volume offers insight into trajectories of parenting exploring parents warmth control rules setting and knowledge of children's activities and whereabouts. Each chapter is authored by a contributor native to the country examined guaranteeing an authentic emic perspective and together the chapters provide a broader sample that is more generalizable to a wider range of the world's population than is typical in most parenting research. Parenting Across Cultures From Childhood to Adolescence is essential reading for researchers and students of parenting psychology human development family studies sociology and cultural anthropology as well as professionals working with families.

Handbook of Political Violence and Children Charles W. Greenbaum, Mohammed Haj Yahia, Carolyn Hamilton, 2021 Political violence has disrupted the lives of millions of children around the world. Responding to the gravity and scale of this phenomenon this volume is intended to stimulate discussion and research on children's exposure to political violence and its psycho social effects. It brings together for the first time in a single volume three areas of scientific activity in different disciplines research on effects programs for intervention and laws and policy for prevention of political violence to children Section I presents reviews of research on children exposed to political violence including child soldiers and refugee children as well as an examination of methodology and ethics Section II contains research on interventions with children exposed to political violence including individual therapy and school family and community interventions Section III covers legal and social issues in deterring the recruitment of children to violent causes and protecting children in armed conflict Pulling together the work of leading scholars and practitioners in the social sciences and international law this volume argues that the prevention of political violence to children is possible and it provides a crucial basis for ideas for prevention

The Trouble with Snack Time Jennifer Patico,2020-08-18 Uncovers the class and race dimensions of the cupcake wars In the wake of school lunch reform debates heated classroom cupcake wars and concerns over childhood obesity the diet of American children has become a crisis and the cause of much anxiety among parents Many food conscious parents are well educated progressive and white and while they may explicitly value race and class diversity they also worry about less educated or less well off parents offering their children food that is unhealthy Jennifer Patico embedded herself in an urban Atlanta charter school community spending time at school events after school meetings school lunchrooms and private homes Drawing on interviews and ethnographic observation she details the dilemma for parents stuck between a commitment to social inclusion and a desire for control of their children s eating Ultimately Patico argues that the attitudes of middle class parents toward food reflect an underlying neoliberal capitalist ethic in which their need to cultivate proper food consumption for their children can actually work to reinforce class privilege and exclusion Listening closely to adults and children s food concerns The Trouble with Snack Time explores those unintended effects and suggests how the crisis of children s food might be reimagined toward different ends
