Critical and Creative Perspectives on Fairy Tales Vanessa Joosen, 2011 In Critical and Creative Perspectives on Fairy Tales An Intertextual Dialogue between Fairy Tale Scholarship and Postmodern Retellings Vanessa Joosen broadens the traditional concept of intertextuality to include academic texts With three key texts from the 1970s at the center of her discussion Marcia K Lieberman's Some Day My Prince Will Come Bruno Bettelheim's The Uses of Enchantment and Sandra Gilbert and Susan Gubar's The Madwoman in the Attic Joosen connects the critical views expressed in these feminist and psychoanalytic interpretations with fictional fairy tale retellings and illustrations that have been published in Dutch English and German since the 1970s While readers may not automatically connect fairy tale retellings and criticism Joosen argues that they represent a similar conviction to understand interpret criticize and experiment with the original tale Moving through her three critical focus texts in chronological order Joosen addresses fairy tale retellings in prose poetry and pictures including revisions of Snow White Cinderella Sleeping Beauty Hansel and Gretel Little Red Riding Hood and Beauty and the Beast Authors and illustrators whose work is discussed include Paul Biegel Anthony Browne Gillian Cross Emma Donoghue Iring Fetscher Ad le Geras Otto Gmelin Wim Hofman Anne Provoost Anne Sexton Barbara Walker and Jane Yolen Joosen argues that retellings and criticism participate in a continuous and dynamic dialogue about the traditional fairy tale but on different terms Critical and Creative Perspectives on Fairy Tales offers many insights into the workings of fiction and criticism that will appeal to fairy tale scholars literature scholars and general readers interested in intertextuality and fairy tales

Case Studies for Teachers of Religion Goodwin Watson, Gladys H. Watson, 1926

Whose Story? Maria González Davies, Riitta Oittinen, 2008 This book is based on the discussions carried out in two seminars on the translation of children's literature coordinated by Maria Gonzalez Davies and led by Riitta Oittinen. The main focus finally revolved around four questions: a) Tackling the challenges posed by translating children's literature both picturebooks and books with illustrations and the range of strategies available to solve specific issues b) the special characteristics involved in reading aloud its emotional dimension and the sphere it occupies between private and public reading c) the interpretation and manipulation of child images and d) the role of the translator/publishers and mediators as active or passive agents whose decisions may finally mirror the images projected by the authors of the source books. This volume is also professionally oriented and presents examples that underline the interaction between theory and practice. The topics range from Bible translation to translating the classics such as Beatrix Potter's tales and fairytales/fantasy worlds for young adults as depicted in Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings or novels such as those by Christine Nostlinger as well as stories with a psychological and social function such as the African war tales. Finally it includes didactic applications that help enhance an awareness of the issues involved.

The Evaluation of Narrative Retellings by Sixth Grade Students James Robert Kalmbach, 1980 Syllabus for a Course in Literature for Children Detroit Teachers College, 1928 Continent, 1925 The Writers Directory 2008 Michelle Kazensky, 2007-06. Features bibliographical/biographical and contact information for living authors worldwide who have at least one English publication. Entries include name/pseudonyms, addresses, citizenship, birth date, specialization, career information and a bibliography. National Union Catalog, 1981. Includes entries for maps and atlases. Current Index to Journals in Education, 2002 Book Review Digest, 1913 American Book Publishing Record, 2007 Concise Encyclopedia of Educational Linguistics B. Spolsky, R. E. Asher, 1999-08-20. The volume comprises 232 thematically organised articles based on the highly successful Encyclopedia of Language Linguistics and the International Encyclopedia of Education 2nd edition revised and where necessary updated and supplemented throughout. Dealing with all topics at the intersection between education and language, the work will prove an invaluable reference for all researchers in the field. Never has there been more intense debate over different attitudes and approaches to teaching and language. This volume will provide a state-of-the-art description of all the topics of interest to language educators and all those concerned with making and implementing policy in language education. Fundamental topics include the social context/society/national school and curricular policy/literacy and oracy/language acquisition/bi and plurilingualism/testing/TEFL/TESOL/SLA.
