Joseph Conrad David J. Supino, 2022-08-13 David J. Supino traces in unprecedented detail the lineaments of Joseph Conrad's authorial career and the fortunes and misfortunes of his publishers on both sides of the Atlantic. This work is a model of the integrative scholarly method combining close bibliographical scrutiny of particular textual artifacts with archival recovery of book historical information in as much detail as the surviving documents allow. The book is essential reading not only for students of Conrad but also for all those who wish to understand the publishing history of this era.

Moments of Silence Arta Khakpour, Shouleh Vatanabadi, Mohammad Mehdi Khorrami, 2016-12-06 Explores how writers, filmmakers, and artists have attempted to reckon with the legacy of a devastating war. The Iran-Iraq War was the longest conventional war of the 20th century. The memory of it may have faded in the wake of more recent wars in the region, but the harrowing facts remain: over one million soldiers and civilians dead, millions more permanently displaced and disabled, and an entire generation marked by prosthetic implants and teenage martyrdom. These same facts have been instrumentalized by agendas both foreign and domestic but also aestheticized, defamiliarized, readdressed, and reconciled by artists, writers, and filmmakers across an array of identities: linguistic (Arabic, Persian, Kurdish), religious (Shiite, Sunni, atheist), and political (Iranian, Iraqi, internationalist). Official discourses have unsurprisingly tried to dominate the process of production and distribution of war narratives. In doing so, they have ignored and silenced other voices. Centering on novels, films, memoirs, and poster art that gave aesthetic expression to the Iran-Iraq War, the essays gathered in this volume present multiple perspectives on the war's most complex and underrepresented narratives. These scholars do not naively claim to represent an authenticity lacking in official discourses of the war but rather call into question the notion of authenticity itself. Finding, deciding upon, and creating a language that can convey any sort of truth at all, collective, national, or private, is the major preoccupation of the texts and critiques in this diverse collection.
