Memory, Identity and the Colonial Encounter in India Ezra Rashkow, Sanjukta Ghosh, Upal Chakrabarti, 2017-08-18 This book sheds new light on the dynamics of the colonial encounter between Britain and India. It highlights how various analytical approaches to this encounter can be creatively mobilised to rethink entanglements of memory and identity emerging from British rule in the subcontinent. This volume reevaluates central long standing debates about the historical impact of the British Raj by deviating from hegemonic and top down civilizational perspectives. It focuses on interactions, relations and underlying meanings of the colonial experience. The narratives of memory, identity and the legacy of the colonial encounter are woven together in a diverse range of essays on subjects such as colonial and nationalist memorials, British Eurasian, Dalit and Adivasi identities, regional political configurations and state initiatives and patterns of control. By drawing on empirically rich regional and chronological historical studies, this book will be essential reading for students and researchers of history, political science, colonial studies, cultural studies and South Asian studies.
