this volume share the assumption that popular narrative when viewed with an evolutionary lens offers an incisive index into human nature In theory narrative art could take a near infinity of possible forms In actual practice however particular motifs plot patterns stereotypical figures and artistic devices persistently resurface indicating specific predilections frequently at odds with our actual living conditions Our studies explore various media and genres to gauge the impact of our evolutionary inheritance in interdependence with the respective cultural environments on our aesthetic appreciation As they suggest research into mass culture is not only indispensable for evolutionary criticism but may also contribute to our understanding of prehistoric selection pressures that still influence modern preferences in popular narrative Contributions by David Andrews James Carney Mathias Clasen Brett Cooke Tam s D vid Barrett Tom Dolack Kathryn Duncan Isabel Behncke Izquierdo Joe Keener Alex C Parrish Todd K Platts Anna Rotkirch Judith P Saunders Michelle Scalise Sugiyama Dirk Vanderbeke and Sophia Wege Anna Niccolò Ammaniti,2017-08-03 It is four years since the virus came killing every adult in its path Not long after that the electricity failed Food and water started running out Fires raged across the country Now Anna cares for her brother alone in a house hidden in the woods keeping him safe from the Outside But when the time comes Anna knows they must leave their world and find another By turns luminous and tender gripping and horrifying Anna is a haunting parable of love and loneliness of the stories we tell to sustain us and the lengths we will go to in order to stay alive
